AUSTRALIAN WOOL SALES.

At the wool sales held at Melbourne yesterday 6,957 bales were offered, practically all of which were sold. Competition was keen and a more confident tone prevailed. America, the Continent, Japan and local mills gave good support, and Bradford operators were more active. Last week's highest rates were fully maintained.

At the wool sales held at Sydney yesterday 6,006 bales were offered, of which 5,392 were sold. Private sales consisted of 1,042 bales. There was an average selection. The market was very firm for all descriptions at the best rates of last week. Prices for finer grades were in sellers' favour. Crossbreds were in good demand. France was still active, while Japan gave increased support. Bradford operators were quiet. Greasy merino realised 29½d.

IRISH FAIRS.

BALLYBAY.—Ballybay monthly fair was largely attended. The cattle fair was rather small and prices for stores showed a downward tendency. Pigs were scarce and in keen demand at war-time prices. Pork touched £6 per cwt., the common price was £5 18/- per cwt. Brood sows were snapped up at from £10 to £12 each. Store pigs, £9 to £10 per pair; suckers, £6 to £7 per pair. Cattle—Prime springers, £25 to £30; second class, £20 to £22 10/-; old springers, £15 to £16 10/-; fresh calved cows, £21 to £24 10/-; milchers, £17 to £18; two-year-old stores, £15 to £16 10/-; six-quarters, £12 to £13; year-old calves, £9 to £11; weanlings, £6 to £8; dropped calves, 40/-. There was a small horse fair and poor prices. Good-blood five-year-olds, £30 to £35; first class farm horses, from £12 to £18; ponies, £10 to £12 10/-; old harness horses, £5 to £7.

BOYLE.—There was an average supply at Boyle August fair yesterday. Trade all round was dull. Prices:—Yearlings, £13 first class; £11 second class. Two years old, £20 first class; £13 10/- second class; £11 third class. Springer cows, £40 first class; £30 second class; £25 third class. Strippers, £15 to £24. Lambs, £5/-. Pigs 100/- per cwt. Bonhams, £6 to £7 per pair. Horses, £15 to £35.

BIG WATERFORD FIRE.

£2,000 DAMAGE.

The bakery premises of Mr. David Grant, George's street, Waterford, were burned from roof to basement yesterday. A night watchman saw the flames issuing from the shop and summoned the fire brigade. So rapidly did the fire spread, however, that it was impossible to save the premises. The brigade saved the adjoining buildings, only one or two of which suffered some damage from the fire. It is understood that the fire was caused by the use of a lighted candle in searching for a leakage of gas. The damage is estimated at between £1,400 and £2,000, and is said to have been covered by insurance.

DRAMA AT THE GAIETY.

"Bought and Paid For" holds the stage at the Gaiety Theatre this week. The idea at the back of the story is not by any means original—the rather conventional tale of the rich man who marries the working girl, and her family, in this case limited to a sister and brother-in-law. The author is all the more to be commended in securing situations which capture the audience and hold attention to the fall of the curtain. This is in great part due to the acting of Mr. Frank G. Cariello and Miss Barbara Everest. The former, who, by the way, will be recalled for his association with Mr. Fred. Terry in "The Scarlet Pimpernel," plays very convincingly the part of Robert Stafford, a self-made business man. Into his life comes Virginia Blaine, telephone operator in a New York shop, and he woos and ultimately wins her. After two years of married life, during which he provides the brother-in-law with a job far beyond his abilities, Stafford begins to exhibit a weakness in character which leads to the break up of his home.

As the maudlin husband, forcing his attentions on a wife who is torn with a conflict of mind as to the moral and legal aspects of the marriage tie, Mr. Cariello has an extremely delicate and difficult rôle, especially in the second act, where the situation, in the hands of a less talented actor, would have developed into broad farce. Miss Everest, as the disillusioned and suffering wife, was also good. There was an admirable restraint and quiet conviction in everything that she said and did. She has certainly added to the pleasant memories of her associations with Dublin. Miss Ethel Lewin, as Fanny Blaine, the delightfully commonplace sister of Barbara, and Mr. J. Leonard Clarke as her husband, Jimmy Gilley, carry the humour of the play very successfully.

Mr. Alfred Hearne, as Oku (a Japanese servant), was clever in a small part, as was Miss Gladys Mansell, who, as a maid, completed the company.

The play will be enjoyed, even if the end is obvious.

THEATRE ROYAL.

"The Vanity Box Revue" is in every respect an admirable entertainment, and the "full houses" at both performances at the Theatre Royal last night, by the almost continual laughter and applause, bore testimony to its merits. There is not a dull moment in any of the twenty-three scenes which follow each other in rapid succession. Many artistic dances by the Tiller Girls lend pleasing variety to the show but the work of Mona Vivian, her singing and her acting in numerous characters, contributed in a high degree to the success of the performances. Her versatility seems to be almost limitless, and her graceful action and dainty personality appeal to all. One of the scenes which drew most laughter is that of the Schoolmaster (Will Hay) and his pupils, Cyril Plant and James Plant. Other members of the company who were conspicuous for their acting are Kitty Franklyn, Stephen Adeson and the Mostyn Quartette. In an interval there was shown on the screen pictures of the Cossacks and their horsemanship in Dublin, and scenes at the Royal Dublin Society's recent Horse Show.

OLYMPIA THEATRE.

The new version of the comedy burlesque, "Unemployed," which was presented at the Olympia last night, was enjoyed by the audiences. There are eight scenes, in the opening one of which the Eight Pompey Girls, with chorus, introduce pretty dances and pleasing songs. The burlesque on the Labour Exchange created much laughter, while the "proceedings" in the orderly room of Ripon Camp, the result of which was the demobilisation of Private Blobbs, was a particularly amusing scene. Billy Blackburn, as Blobbs, was responsible for the major part of the comedy, to which Alf Pratley, whose height cannot be more than thirty-six inches; Harry West and George Beck contributed in no small measure. Ray Rome, Ethel Gray and Betty York were heard with pleasure in song and melody.

ABBEY THEATRE.

Sean O'Casey's "Juno and the Paycock" was revived at the Abbey Theatre last night. All the members of the original cast took part in the performance, including Sara Allgood, Barry Fitzgerald, F. J. McCormick and Eileen Crowe, who carry the play through.

ROTARY AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

A CLOSER RELATION ON INDUSTRIAL SIDE.

At yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Dublin Rotary Club held in Clery's Restaurant,

Canon W. T. Elliott, M.A., Liverpool Cathedral, an immediate past president of Rotary International, expressed satisfaction that the reins of office had been assumed by Mr. Charles White, Belfast. He also paid a tribute to Messrs. Rowan, Hanna and Montford, the Irish representatives who attended the international convention at Cleveland.

It was with great interest that he heard that they were extending an invitation to Rotary International to hold their 1927 convention in Dublin. In his opinion Rotary International could not come to a wiser decision. If it were so decided he hoped that they would rise to the occasion and take advantage of the facilities which they had for making such a visit successful.

There was a movement on foot to get Rotary in the British Isles into closer touch with the League of Nations. That had been regarded with approval, though not officially supported, when he was president of R.I.B.I. Any relation between Rotary and the League of Nations was distinctly on the non-political side of the League of Nations work. On the commercial and industrial side the League of Nations had power to set up machinery for the consideration of international labour and commercial questions. It was they who invited the co-operation of Rotary in that side of their work, and there was every desire on their part that each club should appoint some member to deal with this matter, but there was no coercion about it.

Canon Elliott went on to say that at Blackpool a resolution had been passed to the effect that Rotary clubs should be encouraged, wherever possible, to organise informal conferences between representatives of Capital and Labour. Rotary was failing in its object if it did nothing along those lines. If they had more forethought and good-will such crises as had arisen in the past would not occur so often in the future.

In a discussion which followed Canon Elliott's address, Mr. Kevin Kenny expressed the hope that the Council would take the matter of the relation of employers and employed into consideration as a policy.

ALEXANDRA SCHOOL, DUBLIN.

The Alexandra School, Dublin, will re-open on September 1st, and not, as erroneously stated owing to a misprint in our advertisement columns, on September 12th.

The two naval seaplanes which have been searching for the missing Chinese steamer, Yue Ying Wa, have found no trace of the vessel, says a Hong Kong telegram.

FREE STATE TRADE.

VIEWS OF THE PROVINCIAL PRESS.

ADVICE TO FARMERS.

The figures and the opinions published in the Irish Times during the past few days are commented upon by many of the provincial papers in Ireland.

Dundalk Democrat:—Unless we are prepared to go back to a simpler way of living, and to dispense wholly with dispensable things, there is only one way to restore the balance of trade and our national prosperity. It is to produce more, and better, saleable stuff. There is no use in going on blindly to national bankruptcy and expecting somebody—the League of Nations, perhaps!—to give us a cash bonus big enough to lift us out of our difficulties. It is the farmers that must do it. They have the land, which is practically the only wealth-producing asset the country has. If they do not make the land produce its maximum, they may rest assured that a movement will grow in Ireland to place the land in the hands of people who will make it give up its riches in full measure.

Connacht Tribune:—Britain is able to buy far more than we can produce, but we have got to improve the quality of our stock and produce to compete with the Danes, who are concentrating on capturing her market, and with the other countries that are finding it a profitable source of revenue. In order to do this, we must organise our transport, take prompt measures to prevent interruptions and uncertainties, and do our farming on a bigger and better scale. The magnificent success of the bloodstock sales at Dublin Horse Show is a proof that Ireland is still looked to as one of the most important agricultural countries in the world. Buyers from many countries attended, and all felt that they had done well in coming to Ireland. It will be our own fault if we are to be ousted from the markets that lie at our doors, and if we fail to take full advantage of the markets available in other countries.

The Western People:—In the Free State the obvious is the thing which is generally overlooked. There is little use in prating about the development of agriculture while we make no effort to develop it, but allow it, instead, to drift into a disorganised, neglected, chaotic condition. As an example that protection does not achieve everything that is desirable, we need go no further than to cite the instance of boots, upon the importation of which a tax is imposed by the Government of An Saorstat. Denmark has been ousting Ireland from the world's best market for eggs. The new system of grading and packing introduced may help to create a greater confidence in our egg trade. That yet remains to be seen. But what is established beyond doubt is that the Free State and the Free State Government must wake up and face the realities of the situation in a business-like, organised and well considered manner, if the staple industry of the country is not to be sacrificed to our own inertia and indifference.

The Leinster Leader:—The agricultural industry in the Free State appears indeed to be in anything but a satisfactory condition. This unsatisfactory state of affairs should not be allowed to continue. The Government cannot do very much to help the industry if the people engaged in it will not help themselves. Farmers must bestir themselves. The struggle for existence has become too keen for the easy-going methods of former days to be of use. Efficiency must be aimed at; improvements must be made. . . . A proper system of education is the first requirement. It is the foundation of success. Until this has been established and full advantage taken of it by farmers no real progress will be made. The success which our rivals have gained over us has been due primarily to a superior system of education. We are not an unintelligent race. With proper training we would not be an unsuccessful race. If our markets have been lost no time should be lost in equipping ourselves to recapture them.

The Kilkenny People:—An earnest effort must be made at once to restore the Irish butter trade to its old place in the British markets. At present Danish competition appears to be sweeping all before it, but it must be remembered that Denmark is a highly organised country, while the Free State has but just emerged from conditions of chaos which would have hindered the progress of less resilient people for years to come. Wise legislation in the next few years can work wonders, particularly if there be whole-hearted co-operation with our legislators in their task. It would be well if those who are just now engaged in a hectic, and almost indecent, campaign to pitchfork incompetents into the Senate, would turn their attention to the figures of the trade returns, and see whether their superabundant energies might not be better directed in trying to serve the country's material interests.

The Anglo-Celt (Cavan).—While men talk of protection for our chief industry, we would point out that the Irish farmer has the greatest protection in the fact of his proximity to the largest of the world's markets, and he needs nothing further than the adoption of that organised system of marketing which has proved its value to every one of the competing countries. Grants per acre may be made and other such offers may come, but to the farmer it will prove in the end an unreliable support and will never give him the place he ought to occupy. To develop the industry the farmer must take over control of his own affairs, market all his produce for himself, and follow the example of the countries which are leaving Ireland behind.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

ARRESTS IN CLONMEL.

Detectives have searched the homes of Messrs. P. Dalton, James Nugent, T.C., and P. Brennan, in Clonmel and district; and, discovering revolvers, ammunition, equipment, and literature in the houses of the first-named two, arrested Messrs. Dalton and Nugent, who were brought before District Justice Troy last evening and remanded for a fortnight

COUNTY WATERFORD MOTOR ACCIDENT.

TWO PERSONS INJURED.

At Waterford, on Saturday night, Mr. T. Ryan and three friends were driving in a trap to Ballinasheesha, when they were overtaken by a large red motor car, which ran into them and overturned and wrecked the trap. The four occupants were thrown out. One of them—Mr. Denn—had his left collar bone dislocated, and another passenger suffered from facial injuries. Both were taken to the infirmary. The driver of the car went on at full speed towards Cork.

DUBLIN.

Economies in Dalkey.—Dalkey Urban Council last night accepted, by 7 votes to one, the recommendation of the Finance Committee that the wages of the employés should be reduced to the level of similar employés in the other Urban Council districts in County Dublin. It was remarked that it would mean a reduction of 2s. a week to each workman. The Chairman said that the Council went on the broad principle that in the state of its finances it could not afford to pay a higher wage than the other townships. A deputation was appointed to interview the Gas Company with a view to obtaining a reduction in the lighting contract, and also to inquire if the Kingstown Council would undertake to light the township by electricity, and the probable cost. A resolution rescinding a previous decision to pay the sanitary officer £100 a year was adopted, and the salary was fixed at £52 a year.

Howth Water Money.—By eight votes to one Howth Urban District Council last night passed a resolution repudiating the charge of dishonesty publicly made in the Council Chamber against the old Council. It was alleged that Mrs. Guinness, a member, at a previous meeting said that she thought that it was "absolutely dishonest" that money subscribed for a Vartry water loan should have been expended by the Council on other purposes. Mr. Newcombe, a member of the old Council, declared that if he had acted dishonestly he should have been tried on a criminal charge. He did not approve of the transfer of the money. The proceedings might have been irregular, but not dishonest, and the charge should be withdrawn. The Chairman thought that the remark ought to be modified. Mrs. Guinness did not withdraw her alleged remarks; nor did she vote.

Liffey Drowning.—A verdict of accidental drowning was returned at an inquest in Dublin yesterday into the death of James Desmond, 15 Lower Dominick street, Dublin, who fell into the River Liffey at Burgh quay on Sunday afternoon during a meeting held by Mr. James Larkin. The man's mother said that her son had been subject to fits for a number of years. Patrick O'Neill, Lower Dominick street, said that he was sitting on the quay wall with the deceased man, who was seized with a fit and fell into the water. The Coroner remarked that it was an extraordinary thing that a man subject to fits should sit on the river wall. A doctor said that Desmond was dead on admission to a hospital. There was a wound on the scalp one and a half inches long. Dead was due to asphyxia caused by drowning. The wound could have been caused by coming into contact with the wall.

St. Vincent's Male Orphanage, Glasnevin. The monthly statement of this special work of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul mentions that the receipts were £307 2s. 2d., and the payments £372 9s. 1d., the actual cost of maintenance having been £361 7s. 8d. Two applications were passed, two boys were admitted and three left, leaving 147 in the orphanage at the end of the month.

Bountiful Harvest.—Everything points to an abundant harvest this year in the Lanesborough, Co. Longford, district, writes our Correspondent. The hay crop has been gathered; oats have improved wonderfully owing to the recent rains, and the potato crop is expected to excel that of last year, though some farmers did not sow until as late as June. There are some complaints about the turnip crop, but many excellent fields are to be seen in the district.

Policeman in Street Accident.—A verdict of death from injuries was returned at an inquest in Kilkenny into the death of Johanna Hurley, aged four years, who was knocked down by a motor cycle, ridden by Civic Guardsman Thomas Burke, at Piltown, last Friday. The jury exonerated the guard from blame.

Kilkenny Rates Increased.—Kilkenny Corporation has struck a rate of 12s. 6d. in the £, an increase of 3s. on that of last year. This increase is due principally to the proposed improvement in the waterworks, which will cost £10,000, and a building scheme.

Athboy Fête.—The very successful bazaar and tennis tournament held at Athboy to raise funds for the Athboy Nursing Association, was organised by Mrs. White, The Rectory, who was ably helped by Mrs. Jack Power, Secretary of the Association, and Mrs. Bowles, Vice-President.

Coast Erosion at Youghal. — Youghal Urban Council has received a letter from the Irish Land Commission, stating that the Council's letter regarding coast erosion is receiving attention. Mr. J. Dineen, T.D., wrote stating that two years ago a number of the farmers whose land was in danger of being submerged had asked him to put their case before the Land Commission. This body tried to put the responsibility on to individual purchased tenants. He did his best to impress on the Commission how powerless a few individuals were in a matter of the kind, involving so much. He had also put the matter before the Port and Marine Branch, and had interviewed and written to the Commission, pressing on it the necessity for getting the Departments responsible to carry out the protection work, which, if neglected, might lead to the closing of the railway line to Youghal. Mr. M. J. Hennessy, T.D., wrote stating that during the last three years he had communicated continuously with nearly all the Government Departments on the subject, but had made little headway. To get down to the exact Department responsible was the great difficulty. He felt that something practical would early ensue. The Chairman said that it was satisfactory to know that their representatives in the Dail were looking after their interests.

American's Ignorance of the Law.—Patrick J. McMahon, an Irish-American, appeared at Corofin, Co. Clare, Court, to answer seven charges, five being in respect of non-compliance with the Motor Tax Act, one for being in a publichouse during prohibited hours, and another for representing himself to be a traveller. It was stated for the defence that McMahon was "only returned from the States," and did not know the regulations. The defendant was fined 1s. in all the cases under the Motor Car Act, and 5s. in each of the other charges.

West Clare's Unvaccinated.—A return compiled by the dispensary doctor at Corofin, Co. Clare, indicates that there are 440 vaccination defaulters in the district. Some of the unvaccinated children are over 13 years of age.

Theft of a Purse.—At Cork District Court yesterday, Ellen Driscoll, of 4 Grattan street, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for stealing a purse from Mrs. Margaret Keane at Sunday's Well Church on August 14th.

Alleged Possession of Arms.—William L. Kelleher was remanded on bail at Cork District Court yesterday, on a charge of having in his possession a revolver and twelve rounds of ammunition on August 16.

ULSTER.

English-Speaking Police.—General Mulcahy, Chairman of the Commission on Irish in the Free State, with the Rev. M. McDyer, P.P., Gortahork, were present during the hearing of cases at Gweedore, Co. Donegal, District Court, when the magistrate said that the proceedings should be conducted in Irish. It was explained that the local Guards did not know the Irish language. The magistrate said that that was a state of affairs greatly to be deplored. That district was, perhaps, the most Irish-speaking in all Ireland, and having regard to that fact, he did not see how the Guards could efficiently perform their duties.

NORTHERN IRELAND.

15 Years' Business With Money-Lender.—In the Belfast Custody Court yesterday, Andrew Early, Wigton street, was charged with stealing £3 10s., the property of Mr. Freeman, moneylender, 1 Garfield street. A female clerk employed by the money-lender said that on Saturday the prisoner came in and cleared his debt by paying £1 4s. He then wanted another loan, but the witness said that he would have to see Mr. Freeman. He jumped on the counter and pulled out the drawer. Afterwards she missed £3 10s. The defendant had had dealings with the firm for fifteen years. The prisoner pleaded guilty, and asked for time in which to repay the money. He was allowed out, and on a further charge of having been drunk and disorderly was fined 5s. and costs.

Breaking and Entering Charge.—In the Belfast Custody Court yesterday, James Doherty, Spamount street, was committed for trial on a charge of breaking and entering the premises of Edward Madden, publican, Church lane, on August 15. A detective said that when arrested the accused man had four keys that fitted various locks in the premises, and also four empty bottles in his possession. The publican said that the prisoner used to manage one of his shops, but was dismissed. A plea of not guilty was entered.

Derry and the Late Mr. Massey.—"Remembering how proud my husband was to have been honoured with the Freedom of the City of Derry, we are deeply sensible of the tribute paid to him by its civic authorities and people," wrote Mrs. Massey in a letter read at Derry Corporation meeting yesterday afternoon in reply to the Council's resolution of condolence with the widow and family of the late Premier of New Zealand.

Coal Ship's Difficulties.—The Thelma, which was detained at Dundalk by trouble with members of the Workers' Union, left that port last Saturday evening. The vessel, which carried coal, had originally put into Dublin, but failed to get discharged there, and subsequently got partially discharged at Kingstown. Then it went to Dundalk, but none of the remaining cargo was taken out it there.

Vagrant Gets Three Months.—That she would leave her native town if given a chance, was the plea made by a Strabane woman, named Rose Johnston, who was charged at a special court last Saturday with vagrancy. It was stated that she was making use of bad language, and that complaints had been made about her. The plea was unheeded, and she was ordered three months' imprisonment.

Policeman Drives Drunken Man's Car.—William Orr, Posnett street, was fined £3 10s. and costs in the Belfast Custody Court yesterday for assaulting the police, refusing to show his motor licence, and for being drunk while in charge of a motor car. A policeman gave evidence of assault. Another constable said that he had to drive the defendant and his party to the police station in the defendant's car.

Unidentified Man in Hospital.—An unidentified man was seized with illness in Belfast late last Saturday night, and was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital, and had not been identified. He was still unconscious yesterday morning. He was dressed in a black suit, wore glasses, has dark hair and a moustache. His pockets contained only a Roman Catholic prayer-book and an English grammar.

Workless Londonderry.—"If you were as strong as a horse you would not get a job in this city at the present time. There is no work for anyone," said Mr. Anthony Curran at Londonderry Guardians meeting last Saturday.

£5 for Assaulting Police.—Owen McKenna, Gortlenaghan, was, at a special Court in Dungannon on Monday, fined £5 for assaulting the police last Saturday, and bound over, or in default five months' imprisonment. He had been previously sentenced to three months' imprisonment for a similar offence.

Death of R.D.C. Chairman.—The death occurred on Sunday, after a short illness, of Mr. William S. Bennett, J.P., Chairman of Dungannon Rural Council and a member of the Tyrone County Council. Mr. Bennett, who was formerly a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary, was a native of Monaghan, and was for many years chief Unionist agent for South Tyrone.

COSSACKS AT BELFAST CITY HALL.

WELCOMED BY LORD MAYOR.

A party of the Cossacks who are at present in Belfast visited the City Hall yesterday and were officially welcomed by the Lord Mayor (Sir William Turner, J.P.) in his parlour. The visitors were headed by Colonel Seydler, and included General Savitsky, Colonel Gamalee, M.C.; Colonel Feduchkin, Colonel Khoranoff, and Mdme. Klouss and her little son, Yurka. They were accompanied by, among others, Mr. Krasnokoutsky, who acted as interpreter.

The Lord Mayor, on behalf of the citizens, offered the visitors a very cordial welcome to Belfast. By their magnificent horsemanship and choral services, he said, the Cossacks had won the hearts of all those who had had the pleasure of witnessing their most interesting entertainment and exhibition. He congratulated them on the brilliant programme which they had been able to put before the Belfast public, and wished them all the best of good luck. He hoped that they would carry away with them from Belfast very pleasant memories of their altogether too brief stay there. In conclusion, the Lord Mayor said that he intended to be present at their exhibition that afternoon.

Sir Frederick Moneypenny, C.V.O., and the High Sheriff (Councillor William McCartney, J.P.), who accompanied the Lord Mayor, also extended a cordial welcome to the Cossacks.

Colonel Seydler, returning thanks, said that many of the Cossacks were heirs and grandsons of the old Russian nobility, who had been left destitute through Bolshevism. Some of them had acted as bodyguard to the ex-Czar, and represented the old regime in Russia. They were certain that Bolshevism would be overthrown. (Applause.)

Master Yurka Klouss, who was carried in his mother's arms, presented the Lord Mayor with a beautiful bouquet as a gift for Lady Turner.

The Lord Mayor then proposed the toast of the King, and the Cossacks, anticipating the sentiment, cheered vociferously.

He next gave the health of Colonel Seydler and the Russian Allies, and the toast was cordially received.

The health of the Lord Mayor, proposed by Colonel Seydler, was then toasted in characteristic Russian style.

Sir Frederick Moneypenny, C.V.O., afterwards presented Colonel Seydler and Madame Klouss with artistic gold souvenirs, which were gratefully received, after which the Cossacks signed the visitors' book.

The company were then shown through the magnificent civic building and seemed deeply interested in its architecture, and also in the portraits of former Lord Mayors. In the Council Chamber Colonel Seydler, amid applause, was placed in the Lord Mayor's chair. The Colonel, having addressed a few words to the gathering in the Russian language, Madame Klouss was next called upon to take the chair.

Addressing the company in her native language, she said that she desired to offer the ladies of Belfast her sincere and hearty good wishes. (Applause.)

The Cossacks will perform at 2.30 and 7.15 to-day, and at the conclusion of the evening entertainment they will embark on a specially chartered steamer for Portsmouth.

ARCHBISHOP MANNIX AT CLONMEL.

A CORDIAL RECEPTION.

Archbishop Mannix motored through Clonmel yesterday evening, on his way from Mount Melleray to Kilkenny, where he is to receive the freedom of the city. A large crowd of people, headed by prominent local Republicans, met him at the entrance to the town to escort him to Parnell street, where a halt was made and Mr. Flynn, of the Urban Council, welcomed him.

Mr. Flynn told Archbishop Mannix that the Clonmel Corporation had rejected a proposal to confer the freedom of the borough on him.

Mr. J. Kennedy read an address of welcome to Archbishop Mannix, signed by representatives of Sinn Fein.

Archbishop Mannix said that he could not tell them how much he felt the compliment that had been paid him by the people of Clonmel and South Tipperary. If they were to believe what they heard, the national spirit of Ireland was dead in the district, but he would be able to say now that the spirit was as sound in Clonmel as in many parts of Ireland, and in this struggle for absolute freedom the people of Clonmel and he would be there to do their duty. From his heart he thanked them, and hoped that God would bless them and be with them in the future in every effort they might make for the freedom of the country. He prayed that they might never rest satisfied until Ireland was absolutely free and independent from sea to sea. He hoped that they would not be too hard on the Corporation. Having given his blessing to the kneeling crowd, the Archbishop went on to Kilkenny.

YESTERDAY'S LAW REPORTS.

VACATION SITTINGS.

SERVICE OF A WRIT.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE HANNA.)

Mr. Cawley (instructed by Messrs. Noyk and O'Reilly) applied, in the case of P. T. O'Malley v. Philip Sayers, to have service of a writ made at defendant's business premises deemed good. The writ was in respect of a sum of £247 15s. 4d., moneys alleged to have been paid in connection with the partnership in the Queen's Theatre. The writ had been served on the defendant's manager at his licensed premises, 16 St. Andrew street, and the defendant had declared his intention of remaining in London for some time.

The application was granted.

MONAGHAN FARMER'S ASSETS.

NORTHERN PARTY'S CLAIM.

In the matter of the estate of John McCoy, late of Looart, Glasslough, Co. Monaghan, farmer and widower, who died on June 13th last, aged 69 years, Mrs. Mary Keenan, Jackson terrace, Portadown, sister of the deceased, applied for a grant of letters of administration. A cross-application was made by William McCoy, of Rossmore Park, Monaghan, half-brother to Mrs. Keenan, that he should get the grant.

Mr. Daly (instructed by Mr. Sydney Exshaw) appeared for Mrs. Keenan, and said that the deceased left surviving him one sister (the applicant) and three brothers, James, Thomas and Robert McCoy, who resided in Northern Ireland. He also left a half-brother, the defendant, William McCoy, who was the only child of their father by his first wife, the others being children of the second marriage. He died possessed of two small farms in Monaghan and a deposit receipt in the Ulster Bank for £323. All the next-of-kin, except William McCoy, agreed that Mrs. Keenan should get the grant. All the assets were in the Free State, and the applicants had two very good securities residing in County Monaghan.

Mr. Russell (instructed by Mr. James Roundtree), for William McCoy, urged that he should get the grant on the grounds that he was the first applicant in point of time, that he was the eldest child by the first marriage, and that he was the only member of the family who resided in the Free State.

Mr. Justice Hanna, in granting the letters of administration to William McCoy, said that all the property was situated in the Free State. The deceased had resided in the Free State, and he thought it would be inadvisable to give the grant to a person outside the jurisdiction of the Court. In addition to that, William McCoy lived within four and a half miles of the farms that had to be administered.

DUBLIN DISTRICT COURT.

A MONS VETERAN.

MAIMED EX-SOLDIER SENT TO PRISON.

(BEFORE MR. COLLINS.)

Convicted on a charge of larceny of blank forms, and of filling them in and obtaining money to the amount of £15 16s. 4d. from a number of publicans, Patrick J. Moloney, Shelbourne road, was sentenced to four months' imprisonment, without hard labour.

Mr. E. H. Burne, who appeared for the accused, entered a plea of guilty, and said that Moloney had served through the Great War. He took part in the retreat from Mons, and suffered badly from shell shock. Later he suffered from wounds in the head, and also lost a leg, and since then he had to undergo three operations. Unfortunately, he gave way to drink, and that was the cause of the trouble. He had a pension of 28s. a week.

CAR OUTSIDE BALLROOM.

MAN WHO "FIDDLED WITH THE GEAR."

John Kenny, O'Connell street, Limerick, was remanded for a week on a charge of attempted larceny of a motor car (value £375), the property of Mr. James Lindsay Crabbe, 6 Proby square.

Mr. Crabbe said that he left his motor car outside Clery's Restaurant at about 8.15 o'clock last Saturday night in charge of a newsvendor.

Thomas McGrath, newsvendor, 108 Lower Gardiner street, said that between 9.30 and 10 o'clock on Saturday night, as he was watching Mr. Crabbe's car, the accused came round the corner, and, after standing at Brooks, Thomas's for a time, got into the car. He seemed to be interfering with the gear of the car. The witness asked him what he was doing, and he said that he was "minding it." Later he said that he was with the man who owned it.

Guard 115C gave evidence of seeing the accused opening the door of the car and "fiddling with the gear." When questioned by the witness, the accused said that the car belonged to his friend, who was at a dance in Clery's, but he could not give the owner's name.

To Mr. Collins, the witness said that in his opinion the accused was trying to start the car.

Sergeant 3C said that when charged and cautioned the accused said:—"It is simply absurd. In fact, I do not know how to drive a car."

CYCLIST'S INJURIES.

DAIRYMAN MOTORIST FINED.

David Pedlow, dairymen, Briarley, Dundrum, was fined £10 and his licence was suspended for six months on a charge of driving a motor car recklessly at the junction of Palmerston Park and Oval road, whereby he collided with a motor cyclist—George Hadden, of Lower Elmwood avenue—causing him injuries for which he had to be treated in the City of Dublin Hospital.

Evidence for the prosecution was given to the effect that at 3 p.m. on the 8th July Pedlow drove his car out of Oval road on to the main road on his wrong side, and at a fast speed, giving the motor cyclist no warning or opportunity to avoid the accident.

The defendant, in evidence, denied that he was driving at an excessive speed, and said that the motor cyclist crashed into him.

Mr. Walker, B.L., who appeared for the accused, gave notice that he would appeal.

Mr. J. W. Davis prosecuted.

THE SPEED LIMIT.

For exceeding the speed limit on Lower Leeson street, others were fined as follows:—Harold F. Williamston, Sandford road, Ranelagh (32.14 miles per hour), £4; William R. Vanderkist, Bow Street Distillery (31.25), £3 10s.; Harold C. Rudd, Upper Leeson street (27.77), £2 10s.

Henry Graham, Willbrook, Rathfarnham, summoned for driving a motor car at 30 miles per hour in Harcourt street, was fined £8.

LEAVE TO APPEAL.

Before the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Sullivan and Mr. Justice Hanna, in the Criminal Court of Appeal, an application for extension of time to appply for leave to appeal was made on behalf of Dominick Byrne, who was charged before the Circuit Judge at Naas, Co. Kildare, with breaking and entering a dwellinghouse with intent to steal, and was sentenced to three years' penal servitude. He was refused leave to appeal by the Circuit Judge. It was stated that the prisoner conducted his own defence at the trial, and wished to conduct the appeal.

The application was granted, the case to be entered later on.

Mr. M. A. Corrigan, State Solicitor, appeared for the State.

CLEAN STREETS

Regulations Regarding the Cleansing of Footways, etc., in Dublin County Borough.

The Commissioners of the County Borough of Dublin desire to point out that for some considerable time past it has been the custom of the Owners or Occupiers of premises in the City not alone to sweep the footways and channel pavements adjoining their premises at prohibited hours, but also to sweep out the refuse of their premises on to the roadway. Small heaps of shop refuse are deposited on the streets, at all hours of the day. This unclean practice, to some extent, destroys the effect of the special arrangements made by the Commissioners for the continuous sweeping of the principal streets. In order that there may be no ambiguity as to the duties or obligations of householders and others with regard to this and kindred matters the Commissioners set out hereunder a synopsis of the Bye-Laws made under the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act and other Acts:—

1. It is the duty of Owners or Occupiers of premises, before 9 a.m. on each day (Sundays excepted), to cleanse the footway and channel pavement in front of or adjoining their premises, but they are prohibited from sweeping on to the footpath or roadway the refuse of a shop or premises. This refuse should be put in the Dustbin.

2. The throwing down of any waste paper, advertisement notices, placards, fruit peels, shavings, bottles, empty cigarette cases or match boxes, or similar refuse, on any footway, pavement, or street is also prohibited. Wire baskets have been fitted on the lamp pillars as receptacles for light refuse, and these should be made use of.

3. It is also an offence against the Bye-Laws in the carting of any material through the City to allow any of said material to be strewn on any street. Where this happens through accident, overloading, etc., the material should be immediately swept up and taken away.

4. It is incumbent on every person engaged in the sale of green groceries to see that no vegetable refuse is left on any footway, channel, pavement or street.

In publishing the above details for the guidance of the public, the Commissioners desire to ask for the citizens' whole-hearted co-operation with them in their endeavour to maintain the streets of the city in a manner befitting the Capital, but they desire to intimate that on and after the 14th September, 1925, these regulations will be strictly enforced. The penalty for offences against the Bye-Laws varies from 40s. to £5.

Signed on behalf of the Commissioners.

JOHN J. MURPHY, Town Clerk.

SUDDEN DEATH IN A HOTEL.

At the Munster Hotel, Cork, yesterday, an inquest was held on the body of Mr. Patrick Broderick, aged 77 years, of Market square, who was found dead in bed at the hotel on Sunday morning.

Mr. Denis J. Broderick identified the body as that of his father, who suffered from heart trouble.

Patrick Hassett, hotel boots, said that he knocked at the door of Mr. Broderick's room at about 9.45 on Sunday morning. On receiving no answer he entered it, and found Mr. Broderick lying dead on the bed.

Dr. J. J. Kearney said that he examined the body, and found that the cause of death was heart failure.

Madge Walsh said that Mr. Broderick arrived in the hotel at about 7 o'clock on last Saturday evening. He retired at about 9 o'clock, and was then in good health. At about 2.30 a.m. he called witness, and complained that he was feeling ill. He would not allow witness to send for a doctor. A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence was returned.

THE HOP CROP IN KENT.

Kent's hop crop promises to be smaller than last year's, but, although the yield is expected to be about four or five cwt. per acre less, there is every prospect of the quality being excellent. According to the Hop Controller one hundred thousand cwt. of English hops is still unsold.

Growers have unanimously decided to support the National Farmers' scheme for the formation of a society for the co-operative marketing of hops, and those responsible for the proposal are so confident of its success that they have taken over all the staff of the controller, which otherwise would have been dispersed on Saturday, the industry being now decontrolled.

The Irish Times.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1925.

NEWS SUMMARY.

IRELAND.

Further strong protests are made to-day against the decision of the Executive Council to set up a separate Medical Register in the Free State.—(Page 5.)

A report from Limerick states that Messrs. Siemens-Schuckert, of Berlin, are expected to tender for the work in connection with the local harbour extension scheme.—(Page 5.)

The first sugar factory in the Free State will be in the Barrow Valley, but the exact site has not yet been fixed.—(Page 5.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

A flying officer's gallantry in swimming literally through fire and water to save comrades who were entangled in the wreckage of a flying boat which fell into the Solent was described at an inquest yesterday.—(Page 6.)

King Feisul arrived in London from Paris yesterday. He is suffering from abdominal trouble, and was accompanied by his English doctor.—(Page 5.)

ABROAD.

The Prince of Wales was received enthusiastically when he landed at Buenos Aires yesterday.—(Page 5.)

Telegrams from Paris state that the insurgents in Morocco are much impressed by a large-scale operation which was begun yesterday.—(Page 5.)

SPORTING.

At Llandudno yesterday Wales defeated Gentlemen of Ireland by an innings and 36 runs.—(Page 7.)

At Tramore yesterday Duke of Monaclear won the Waterford Plate, Little Alice the Dunmore Plate, Louvixen the Moderate Plate, Mary Patricia the Annstown Plate, Striped Silk the Summer Plate and Ronald Fox the Castletown Plate.—(Page 8.)

At Wolverhampton Field Argent won the Wyfold Handicap.—(Page 8.)

FINANCIAL.

London Stock Markets were busier, with an irregular tendency. Argentine Rails were a strong spot.—(Page 9.)

Lombard street was well supplied with funds, and overnight loans were made at 3½ per cent. and down to 3 per cent. Discount rates were weak.—(Page 9.)

In Dublin the market was busy, but irregular. Many price changes were to lower levels, and rises were small in extent.—(Page 9.)

The Doctors' Peril.

The Irish public is beginning to realise the facts of the medical crisis, and its faith in the Free State Government's judgment and sense of responsibility has received a heavy blow. In the first place, the injury which the Government has decided to inflict on the medical profession, and on education generally, is enormous. In the next place, the excuse which the Government offers for this injury is so trivial as to be an insult to the national intelligence. At present the Free State's medical schools are famous throughout the world; their graduates practise in every part of the British Empire and hold thousands of positions—many of them the highest—in the imperial services. They enjoy these privileges and opportunities by virtue of their enrolment on the British Medical Register. If they lose the Register as a result of the Free State Government's action, they will lose the practice of the Empire and will be thrown back upon the petty area of their own twenty-six counties. This devastation is to be wrought because the Free State Government has discovered suddenly that the authority of the General Medical Council in the Saorstat—its authority to exact a high standard of medical education—is "incompatible with our constitutional status." The absurdity of President Cosgrave's contention is exposed to-day by Dr. Hennessy, a member of the Government Party in Dail Eireann, who shows that Ireland is on a perfect equality with England in all the functions discharged by the General Medical Council. Even if any political scruple could justify the ruin of a great profession, Mr. Cosgrave's scruple has no foundation in fact.

If the Free State Government were logical, it would regard the authority of British trade unions in Ireland as a thing "incompatible with our constitutional status" and would proceed forthwith to challenge the Irish Labour Party on the point. Of course, it will do nothing of the kind because it has a healthy respect for that party's power in Parliament and the country. We think that we do the Executive Council no injustice when we offer a threefold explanation of its attack on the British Medical Register. It desired to disarm Republican criticism and to soothe its own extremists by a dramatic gesture of political independence; it conceived the attack in light-hearted ignorance of the national issues at stake, and it thought that the medical profession, being a non-political body, would be unable to defend itself in any effective fashion. By this time, no doubt, much of the Government's ignorance has been dispelled; and now the pressure of public opinion must complete the process of disillusionment. The situation is dangerous and urgent because, if no counter-move is made, the temporary Act which safeguards the Medical Register will lapse automatically in February of next year, and then the mischief may be beyond repair. In the interval the medical profession and that educated electorate which understands the importance of the profession's welfare must convince the Government of its blunder by the only method that convinces Governments of anything—namely, by a formidable demonstration of political strength. We hope that already the various medical bodies are making plans for a joint appeal to the country. We assume that Dublin University and the National University will act closely together in a crisis which menaces their vital interests.

The doctors have an immediate opportunity to advertise their own and the nation's peril and to test public feeling in the matter. They are not politicians, but, since the Government has turned their prosperity and prestige into a political issue, they have every right—nay, they have a clear duty—to meet the Government on its own ground. Elections to the Free State Senate will be held a month hence, when the country will be invited to choose nineteen senators from a list of seventy-six candidates. The electorate numbers some 1,200,000 citizens of mature years; and there can be hardly one of these persons who is not affected, in one or another interest, by the economic welfare and scientific efficiency of the medical profession. The medical bodies and universities ought to invite the specific help of all the seventy-six candidates in defence of the British Medical Register. From the list of those who respond favourably they ought to select the nineteen candidates who promise the most uncompromising support and are best qualified to advocate and defend their cause in the Senate and elsewhere. We think that, with proper advertisement, such chosen defenders of the medical profession would rally round them a very large body of the electorate, and that the result would be a demonstration of national sympathy which the Government could not venture to ignore. In any case it is unthinkable that the Free State's universities should be crippled and its splendid medical schools destroyed by the ipse dixit of any Government. The sentence of death, if it is to be passed at all, must be passed by the verdict of the nation.

Indian Problems.

Interest in Indian affairs has been revived after a period of quiescence by the resumption of the activities of the Bengal Legislative Council. Its first business was to elect a new President in succession to Sir Evan Cotton—the first trial of strength between the Swarajists and the Independents. Both sides exerted their utmost efforts. The Swarajists even enlisted the support of Mr. Gandhi on behalf of their nominee; and the result of the ballot, which gave Kumar Shibshekhareswar Roy, the Independent candidate, 67 votes against 61 polled by Dr. Suhrawardy, must be accepted as a fair index of opinion. Furthermore, subsequent events have shown that the defeat of Dr. Suhrawardy was no mere flash in the pan; for, in spite of the most skilful use of obstructive tactics, the Government has succeeded in passing all its bills. Such a proceeding would have been impossible a few months ago. This defeat, moreover, is but one of many troubles which are gathering round the extremist party. Indeed, the Swarajist Party is faced with the alternatives of practical politics—in other words, co-operation in the working of reforms—and political suicide. As co-operation is virtually a negation of its creed, the result of the Bengal election is being hailed as the beginning of the end of Swarajist domination and destruction in India. Apart, however, from its political importance, the Swarajist movement has great economic significance. India has been putting the cart before the horse. Her vital need is an improvement in the economic conditions and political education of her peasantry, who number over ninety per cent. of her population; and this improvement must be a prelude to any further political development. The conditions of life in an Indian village to-day are an unanswerable argument against further "Indianisation." The villagers are almost completely illiterate and are quite unfitted to exercise the suffrage or, indeed, to form an opinion on any subject outside purely village interests. They are at the mercy of their religious or economic superiors: Lord Cornwallis's "permanent settlement" has enriched the landlords, but has done little to help their tenants. The peasants are heavily indebted to the money-lenders. Despite the efforts of native leaders like Mr. Gandhi, the late Mr. C. R. Das and Mr. San Gupta, the usual minimum rate of interest on loans to peasants remains at the outrageous figure of thirty-six per cent. Ever present in the background are the immemorial hostility between Hindu and Moslem, which the merest breath can fan to open war, and the dead-weight of social customs and caste usage. Is such a country ripe for political progress either by evolution or revolution? Bureaucracy has been a true friend of the Indian masses. The Indian Civil Service has the finest administrative record of any time or country, and many years must pass before India can dispense with its benefits. It is a far cry from Pope to Calcutta, but the latest news from Bengal seems to indicate that the present motto of all sensible Indians, as well as of Anglo-Indians, is—

"For forms of government let fools contest;
Whate'er is best administered is best."

Clean Streets.

Writers of romances have depicted ancient, ruined cities in Africa and South America, relics of bygone civilisations, that now are inhabited by dusky tribes, indifferent to the decaying splendours amid which they dwell. Dublin, in late years, has presented a similar appearance. Noble architecture stands in ruins or in pitiful neglect. Ugly inscriptions and ancient posters disfigure the walls. The footways are unclean and the roads are strewn with rubbish. The City Commissioners have done much to restore the dignity of the capital of the Free State. They have laid excellent roads in place of dirty, cobbled thoroughfares—although even to-day Dawson street and part of College Green resemble mountain causeways—and they have set bravely about the task of giving the people decent housing. Without the citizens' aid the best work of the Commissioners will go for naught. There must be a general response to the Commissioners' appeal, published to-day, for public cleanliness, if Dublin is to shake off that air of decay which breeds despondency and disease. Owners and occupiers of premises are warned that it is their duty to cleanse the footway and channel pavement adjoining their houses; and the public generally is reminded that wire baskets are provided in the streets as receptacles for rubbish. The unclean practice of casting shop refuse into the public highway at all times of the day is to be suppressed by the stern enforcement of the bye-laws bearing upon urban cleanliness. We hope that the citizens will yield the fullest moral support to the Commissioners in their praiseworthy effort "to maintain the streets of the city in a manner befitting the capital." There is no other large city in Europe whose people would tolerate the untidiness and disorder which disfigure Dublin; yet there are few cities which have greater natural and architectural possibilities of dignity and beauty. It rests with the citizens to determine Dublin's future. "It is the men, not the houses, that make the city."

A Cricketer's Feat.

Yesterday at Taunton Hobbs, the Surrey cricketer, made his hundred and twenty-sixth "century" of runs, thus equalling the life achievement of the greatest player of the game, the late Dr. W. G. Grace. This is the thirteenth "century" which Hobbs has made in the present year, and he declares that he counts it a harder task to make fourteen "centuries" in a season than one hundred and twenty-six in a lifetime. In what remains of this year's season, therefore, a further "century" by Hobbs, if made, will represent a double feat, and will set a "record" that for many a year is likely to stand unchallenged. The champion's struggle has been watched this year with the keenest interest, and yesterday there were wild scenes of enthusiastic congratulation. Cricket hardly holds to-day the place of prominence in public favour which it enjoyed in Victorian times, but Hobbs is largely to be thanked for the revival of interest which has centred this year on the most characteristic of British sports. It is gratifying to realise that Britain still can show the world giants of the athletic field and beat her own "records." If Hobbs crowns his feat of yesterday by making one more "century" this year, England, having among her living players the master of the game, may look forward to the next Test matches with Australia in a spirit of revived confidence.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE MEDICAL REGISTER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—The announcement in to-day's Irish Times concerning the status of doctors in the Irish Free State has its counterpart in another great calling—that of the sea. Like the medical profession, the masters', mates', engineers' and fishermen's certificates are all registered in London by one authority, the Board of Trade. These certificates are obtained as the result of examinations, the papers being set by this authority and posted to all centres where examinations are held, including the Irish Free State.

The Government, evidently moved by political reasons, similar to those mentioned in your leader in to-day's Irish Times, intended "to cut the painter" from English control and issue their own certificates, printed in Irish. The matter was at once strongly taken up by Irish seamen and various interested parties, notably the shipowners; and they produced such convincing evidence as to the folly of making any change that eventually the Government decided to leave matters as they stood. To-day Irish seamen continue to enjoy all the privileges and advantages of a certificate that has the hall-mark of one authority, world-known and international.

Had the Government's wish prevailed, no candidates would have presented themselves, and the Nautical Academy and Training School would have collapsed. By united effort the seamen have accomplished what it is hoped that public opinion may do for the medical profession—to save the State from the folly of its own Government.—Yours, etc., "EXTRA MASTER."

Dublin, August 17th, 1925.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—It is typical of Ireland that, having agitated for God knows how many years for a university of her own, and got it, she should now desire to close it down. The reason put forward is "need of a national dignity compatible with our status," but to me it is ironic that the most dignified profession in a country whose national dignity has become a myth should be made the victim of this imbecile search after a will o' the wisp.—Yours, etc., "STUDENT."

Dublin, August 17th, 1925.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—Loyalty to my native city—a loyalty that the history of the past few years has made it very difficult to retain—and a lasting pride in Trinity College, the rallying ground of all that is best in Irish cultured opinion, made me send one of my sons (as I had hoped to send my other son) to the famous Medical School of Dublin; and I shall be grieved if he is to lose advantages vouchsafed to brother Irishmen more happily placed as regards Government arrangements. However, the importance of the matter as affecting me or my sons is small compared with the wrong the foolish and short-sighted policy will do the country in prestige as well as more material things. Apart from the financial loss both to Dublin City and the Dublin hospitals, the inevitable closing or curtailment of the Dublin medical schools would mean that the medical services to the poorer classes in Dublin would be very considerably reduced. Of the, roughly, 1,000 young men studying medicine there, more than fifty per cent. are rendering splendid remedial attention to the sick and infirm, as well as to a large number of maternity cases, and the loss of medical attention in this way would be deplorable.

From whatever aspect the proposed action of the Free State Government is viewed, no conclusion can be come to other than that it is exceedingly stupid and in the worst interests of the country. God save Ireland from such a Government!—Yours, etc., "DUBLINER IN THE NORTH."

Belfast, August 17th, 1925.

SUNDAY HORSE-RACING.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I see by the local papers that horse races are to be held in Loughrea on Sunday, the 30th August, and a very elaborate programme is published throughout the country. It is an innovation to have horse races held in Ireland on a Sunday, and I think that all Christians, Catholics and Protestants alike, will agree that it is an innovation that ought not to be encouraged. Between cycling races and tournaments, and boxing matches and championships of every kind, we are going at such a pace in these latter years that excitement and pleasure seem to have relegated to the background the rest and devotion of the Lord's Day. But when horse races are now introduced into the card, it would seem to be time that those who have some little regard for the Lord's Day should raise their voices in protest.—Yours, etc., J. FALLON, P.P.

Castlebar, August 17th, 1925.

CUSTOMS DUTIES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I recently received by post a new macintosh coat, sent on approval by the Army and Navy Stores, London. I had 7s. 5d. duty to pay on it and 6d. tax. The value of the coat was £2 8s. 6d. I returned the coat by next post, as it was not suitable. Upon applying for a refund of the duty paid, I was informed that no refund could be given. I may add that I forwarded the receipt for the coat returned and also for the duty paid. I am a temporary visitor to the Free State, and such treatment strikes me as somewhat unreasonable. I should be glad to know if I have any redress in the matter, or whether I must return to England "grousing" about what seems a great injustice.—Yours, etc., "MACINTOSH."

Dublin, August 17th, 1925.

CENSUS IN KENYA COLONY.

The Legislature passed a resolution to-day, recommending the holding of a census of the entire population of Kenya Colony, including the natives, in February, 1926. The Chief Native Commissioner stated that some difficulty might be anticipated with the Northern frontier tribes, who are inclined to be turbulent, and armed intervention might be necessary. The Commissioner also foreshadowed difficulties with certain other tribes, among whom there was a strict taboo against counting themselves and their wives, or even their cattle, for fear of exciting the jealousy of the gods.—(Reuter.)

COURT AND PERSONAL.

Yesterday the King and Queen motored from Goldsborough Hall to Sledmere House to visit Lady Sykes, and afterwards inspected Sir Mark Sykes's stud, which has established a fine reputation. Later in the evening the King continued his journey North, and was due to arrive at Ballater early this morning.

Prince Henry has returned from Melton Mowbray, where he spent the week-end with Major and Lady Eileen Clarke, at Burton Lazars. Princess Arthur of Connaught will leave London to-day for Scotland, and will join her mother, the Princess Royal, at Mar Lodge, where the house party this week includes Lord Carnegie and Lady Maud Carnegie, General Sir Reginald and Lady Wingate, and Mr. A. Bonham Carter.

Yesterday the Hon. Hugh Grosvenor attained his majority. He is the only son of Lord and Lady Stalbridge, and grandson of Lord Richard Grosvenor, a brother of the first Duke of Westminster, who was made a Peer of the United Kingdom in 1886. He married en secondes noces the daughter of the late Mr. R. Hamilton Stubber, of Moyne, Queen's County, and their eldest son is the present peer.

Sir Archibald and Lady Weigall are entertaining a house party at Petworth, Woodhall Spa, where Princess Marie Louise arrived yesterday. Their guests include General Sir John and Lady Maxwell, Lady Guggisberg, Major and Lady Enid Turner, the Hon. Montague Fane, and Sir Henry and Lady Galway.

The Earl of Rosebery has left London for Crewe Hall, the Marquis of Crewe's place in Cheshire, where he will remain for about a fortnight. Lord Dalmeny is shooting in Perthshire, where there is a great gathering of sportsmen this year. Sir Ronald Graham, British Ambassador in Rome, and his wife, Lady Sybil Graham, have arrived in London on leave, and left yesterday for Scotland, where they will join several shooting parties. The Earl and Countess of Derby left for Scotland last week and are now at Coldstones, Gullane.

S.E. and S.W. Ireland.—Wind variable to north-easterly, light to moderate; mainly fair, but local showers, perhaps accompanied by thunder; some mist; warm.

South-West Seaboard.—Wind variable to north-east, light to moderate; mainly fair, but local showers, perhaps accompanied by thunder; some mist; sea slight.

Irish Sea and St. George's Channel.—Wind mainly north-east to north, light to moderate; mainly fair, but a risk of local thundery showers; some mist; sea slight.

North-West Seaboard.—Light, variable winds; mainly fair; visibility moderate to good; sea slight.

LONDON LETTER.

PROBLEMS OF THE RECESS.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
MONDAY NIGHT.

Mr. Baldwin has departed for Aix-les-Bains to enjoy a well-earned rest, but most members of the Government are at hand or within easy reach of London. Present day recesses are not like those of old, when Ministers departed for indefinite periods, usually with the intimation that no correspondence would be forwarded. The practice of autumn sessions has wrought a change, and most Ministers are now kept busy preparing legislation for the winter sittings. This recess is exceptional in that there are in the balance both foreign and domestic questions which at any moment might assume acute stages necessitating an immediate meeting of the Cabinet. The Prime Minister would not have gone so far afield were it not possible for him to get back to town at a few hours' notice.

Revolutionary Threats

Most prominent among domestic troubles are those which concern the coal industry and the railways. The crisis in the mines is not, as many people suppose, even temporarily settled. Nothing succeeds like success, and Mr. Cook, having scored one round, has become further emboldened. Not content with threatening upheaval next spring, this disciple of Moscow is busy stirring up as much strife as possible meanwhile. He aspires to the creation of a Red army of workers in readiness for the revolution which, he gleefully declares, is drawing near. Mr. Cook is no dissembler. He makes his demands with honest directness, leaving no ambiguity as to his ulterior intentions. The other miners' leaders—those of the trade union type as distinct from the products of the minority movement—seem to have passed completely into the shade.

Railway Unrest.

There are unmistakable signs that a large section of the railwaymen desire a clash and would welcome a trial of strength without delay. There is no use in obscuring the fact that the extremists have captured the Miners' Federation and are rapidly making their influence felt in other unions. That they have made headway with the railwaymen was manifest in the hostility displayed towards Mr. J. H. Thomas during yesterday's meeting at Cardiff. While the audience cheered to the echo a lot of inflammatory talk about the tremendous fight that is to be put up by the railway workers in the next few months, there was hooting when Mr. Thomas counselled patience and a resort to constitutional methods and reason rather than to force. The former Colonial Secretary broke definitely adrift from the extremists' policy, and there was no equivocation in his condemnation of the coal subsidy as leading inevitably to disaster. He proved a nasty thorn in the political flesh of that "Red" gathering.

Doctors and the Register.

London's "emptiness" was revealed to-day when the opinions of prominent medical men on the Free State's separate register were sought. Most of the principal members of the profession are on vacation. Those in town do not question the right of the Free State Government to set up its own register, but feel that such action will not be beneficial to Irish practitioners. As one distinguished surgeon, who desires to remain anonymous, said: "If the Irish Government has decided to sever its connection with us, we must accept the decision, though it is a surprising one in view of the restrictions which it must place upon Irishmen now and graduates in the future. The latter will be badly handicapped."

British Trade Losses in China.

It is to be hoped that there is ground for the impression that affairs in China are mending. British interests have been badly affected by the disturbances and the boycott of foreign goods. It is eleven weeks since the trouble commenced at Shanghai, and during that time it is estimated that this country has been suffering to the extent of £250,000 a week by loss of trade with China, of which amount the greater part is concerned with Lancashire cotton goods. Shippers have refused to send consignments owing to the uncertainty which prevails, and many orders for future delivery have been cancelled.

Westminster Palace.

During the Parliamentary vacation the exterior of the Palace of Westminster will undergo rigid examination. The walls and stone decorative work are in a much more dangerous state than the investigation a year ago revealed. Pieces are constantly falling—luckily, so far, without injury to life or limb—but risk was such that last session it was deemed prudent to serve teas on the terrace close against the river parapet, keeping the tables as far from the walls as possible. Repair work is constantly in progress on the outside of the building, and it has been necessary to remove entirely a hundred or more of the gargoyles which occupy so large a place in the general scheme of architecture. It is estimated that complete renovation will cost at least £1,000,000. The buildings were designed by Sir Charles Barry, and built by him between 1840 and 1860.

Dearer Coal.

Londoners are suffering from another coal "ramp." They suspect a deliberate attempt at "profiteering." The classes known as best cobbles and kitchen nuts have suddenly gone up a shilling and two shillings a ton respectively. Various reasons are assigned for the advance, among them that pithead prices have increased. As a matter of fact, pithead prices have been easier during the last week, although there was a slight rise about the beginning of July. Merchants are indignant at the suggestion that the "ring" has been at work, but it is significant that they should have shown such remarkable unanimity in adopting exactly the same rise at precisely the same time.

Cricket in Essex.

Before the beginning of the present season there was a prospect of the Essex County Cricket Club being compelled to abandon its fixtures in the County Championship owing to lack of funds. Fortunately, however, sufficient guarantees were forthcoming to enable the club to carry on, and this season's finances have so far been satisfactory. Now, however, new trouble is threatening. The principal ground of the club at Leyton is owned by the Army Sports Board, which is giving the property up, as it has proved a "white elephant" for Army purposes. The Essex Club is now whipping up its supporters to re-purchase the land which it disposed of to the War Office three or four years ago.

MELBOURNE, Monday.

Mr. Bruce, the Prime Minister of Australia, stated to-day that the whole question of the proposed visit of the Duke of York to Australia was "at present in the air." He declined to say whether the Federal Government was in communication with the Imperial Government on the matter.—(Reuter.)

KING'S VISIT TO SCOTLAND.

The King concluded his visit to Princess Mary last night, and, accompanied by Prince Henry, left for Ballater at 10.20. He was seen off at the station by Lord Lascelles. The Royal train is due at Ballater at 9.30 this morning.

WHAT THE FREE ST… DECISION M…

KILLING THE …

CAMPAIGN TO FIG… REGISTRATION

THE Free State Government's proposal to set up a separate Medical Register for the Free State, when the present arrangement ends in February next, is the subject of further severe criticisms to-day.

So far as present indications go, it would seem that ninety-five per cent. of the doctors of the twenty-six counties are wholly and unreservedly opposed to the Government's amazing proposal. There is, needless to say, a panic amongst the students of the various medical schools—that is among those whose final examinations are on the wrong side of 28th February, 1926, the date on which the present system of registration is to be discontinued.

One well-known Dublin doctor expressed the opinion yesterday that the students' roll of the medical school of University College, Dublin, would contain not more than fifteen new names for the coming academic year. No doubt, a similar state of affairs is anticipated by the other medical schools in the country. In Belfast, however, it is probable that in the coming year the total will constitute a record in the history of the college.

Meanwhile the various medical bodies in the twenty-six counties are preparing for a fight—a fight in which the existence, the tradition and the prestige of a great profession is at stake.

There is reason to believe that an important meeting of medical men will be held in Dublin in the immediate future to consider the whole question and to draw up the plan of campaign.

There is reason also to believe that the storm of opposition provoked by the decision of the Executive was responsible for a meeting of the Cabinet yesterday. The meeting lasted some time, and was attended by all the members of the Council.

RESTRICTED CAREERS FOR IRISH DOCTORS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

LONDON, Monday.

Dr. G. T. A. Anderson, who is at the moment acting secretary to the British Medical Association, discussed this morning the decision of the Irish Free State to set up a separate register for doctors qualifying in Ireland.

"We are completely surprised at such a movement," said Dr. Anderson. "The establishment of a separate register for the Free State means that graduates in the South of Ireland will be put in exactly the same position as graduates of a foreign country—they will not be entitled to practise in this country, because they are not on the General Medical Register.

"The Army, Navy and Air services and Colonial medical services would be barred to them unless a request were made by the Irish Free State for these men to be admitted to the Medical Register of this country. But we should not enter into any one-sided arrangement, and reciprocity would be essential.

"The degrees given in Canada, Australia and other Colonies and Dominions are registered in this country, and vice versa. If the Free State desired that degrees granted there should be registerable here, we, on our part, would want a similar concession in regard to graduates from England."

Dr. Anderson said that he thought that Irish doctors at present on the British Register, whether they were practising in Ireland or Great Britain, would remain.

He added that hitherto the services had absorbed a large number of Irish graduates—but the new regulation would so limit the horizon of Irish graduates that he believed that the students would either graduate in Belfast, Scotland or England.

The General Medical Council declined to discuss the new proposal until they have received a report from the Irish Branch of the Council.

A MISINFORMED MINISTER.

A member of the Executive Council, in the course of conversation with an Irish Times representative last night, "pooh-poohed the outcry that had been raised against the Government decision." The Colonial register was, he said, open to the Irish doctors; nothing could keep them off it. He added that the question is one which is perturbing only a small clique of medical men in Dublin, who wish to hold the profession in their own hands.

THE ULTIMATE RESULT.

Writing in "A Londoner's Diary," in the Evening Standard, a correspondent says:—"The Irish Free State is, of course, at liberty to set up a separate Medical Register of its own if it considers this an indispensable symbol of its independence. But I wonder whether President Cosgrave has considered the probable consequences? Ireland does not offer an unlimited field for the activities of first-rate doctors and promising young men. They, as in Scotland, are liable from the outset of their careers to fix a yearning eye on Harley street. This new decision means, I imagine, that the more ambitious will tend to come to England for their training. This will inevitably affect the Irish medical schools and, consequently, the supply of doctors for Ireland."

"DOCTORS IN REVOLT."

The Star, which quotes the opinions of Sir Thomas Myles, Sir William Smyly and Surgeon George Foy, which appeared in to-day's Irish Times, says:—"The medical profession of the Irish Free State is in open revolt against the decision of the Free State Executive to break with the General Medical Council, which up to now has controlled Free State doctors. To-day Irish doctors are found everywhere in the British Empire by virtue of their inclusion on the General Medical Register. This field for their activities would be closed by the institution of a separate Irish Medical Register."

POSSIBLE TENDER FOR EXTENSION SCHEME.

Our Limerick Correspondent writes that, in the conversation between the representative of Messrs. Siemens-Schuckert, Berlin (Mr. M'Loughlin) and the members of the Limerick Harbour Board on Saturday last, the financial aspect of the proposed Limerick Docks extension scheme was discussed. It is learned, he says, that Messrs. Siemens-Schuckert are anxious to tender for the work if they have not already done so. They think that the Board should concentrate on the full scheme of extension, and not on a partial scheme.

POSSIBLE TENDER FOR EXTENSION SCHEME.

Our Limerick Correspondent writes that, in the conversation between the representative of Messrs. It is learned, he says, that Messrs. Siemens-Schuckert are anxious to tender for the work if they have not already done so. They think that the Board should concentrate on the full scheme of extension, and not on a partial scheme.

POINTS AGAINST THE PROPOSAL.

The argument that it is uneconomic to educate doctors who will practise in other countries applies equally well to the clerical colleges in Ireland.—Dr. William M. Crofton.

It simply means the extinction of medical schools in Dublin, and that young men who qualify with us will go elsewhere. Both the medical schools and the hospitals will suffer. The whole thing has simply stunned the medical profession. We had no inkling of such a proposal coming from the Government; on the contrary, we expected that the temporary arrangement ending in February would be made a permanent one.—Sir Conway Dwyer, M.D.

The action of the Executive Council, so far as it is a gesture towards national independence, is ill-chosen and futile. No doubt, it will mean as claimed for it—that there will be a self-contained and isolated medical profession in the Free State, consisting of some fifteen hundred under-paid and generally ill-treated medical practitioners, for whom the present Government has refused to do anything to improve their conditions.—Dr. T. Hennessy, T.D.

What has been universally lost sight of is that on the General Medical Council are Irishmen as well as Englishmen and Scotsmen, and that the Irish representation on it is out of all proportion to the population. This fact alone shows that it is not an English institution at all.—Dr. Edward Magennis, Past President of the Irish Medical Association.

The decision means that the schools of medicine in the Free State will have to shut down. I hope that before definite action is taken wiser views will prevail, and that matters will be allowed to remain as they are.—Professor O'Sullivan, of Cork.

"UNECONOMIC."

GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES NECESSARY.

That the establishment of a separate medical register for the Free State would be "a national disaster" is the conviction of Dr. William M. Crofton, the Dublin pathologist.

"It would be a national disaster," he told our representative yesterday, "because it would cut off from the world doctors of genius who have been trained in what are probably the most practical medical schools in existence. To my own personal knowledge it is depriving the world of a share in discoveries that have been, and are being, made and developed almost entirely in Dublin. I refer to special new methods of preventing and curing disease.

"The effect of the Government's decision must be to turn the medical schools of the Free State from first-rate ones into third-rate ones.

NEW BARRIERS.

"The argument that it is undignified for the Free State to be associated with the Medical Profession of the Empire clearly will not hold water. To anyone with a little vision it is manifest that with the increasing rapidity and facility of international intercourse—by means of new and improved methods of travel—national barriers everywhere are breaking down. The erection instead of the destruction of such barriers seems to be the aim of our own Government. Their latest action is scarcely more than an effort to establish another Pale in Ireland.

"The argument that it is uneconomic to educate doctors who will practise in other countries applies equally well to the clerical colleges in Ireland. If the argument in one case is sound, it is sound in the other. If it is uneconomical to educate doctors for export, and if the present decision is meant to end that, surely the Government will find itself obliged to bring ecclesiastical colleges under a similar interdict."

PROBLEM OF TEACHERS.

Discussing the effect of the Government's decision on Free State medical schools, Dr. Crofton continued:—"It will not be possible to support a medical school that will be anyway efficient. Where are the students to come from? If efficiency is to be maintained in the future it can only be maintained by large grants of money from Government sources—Government subsidies. In any event it is very doubtful that the schools could retain the best teachers, because naturally every teacher desires to train men who will go abroad and uphold the reputation of the schools and teacher.

"It is this patriotic desire indeed that has been mainly instrumental in keeping the best of our professors attached to their old medical schools here. This very strong motive will now be removed, and the best brains of the profession will be at the disposal of other countries and other pupils."

PRINCE OF WALES AT BUENOS AIRES.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

FROM THE PRESS ASSOCIATION'S SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

BUENOS AIRES, Monday.

The Prince of Wales landed here at 2.30 this afternoon. President Alvear and the chief authorities of the State received him at the harbour, and the cheering crowd which lined the streets from the harbour to the Palace of the President gave him an enthusiastic welcome.

The day's proceedings were favoured with beautifully fine, though cold, weather. All the steamers in the harbour were gaily dressed for the occasion, and excited spectators occupied every point of vantage on board.

A guard of honour of smart-looking Naval Cadets was drawn up along the covered quay at which the landing took place, and a naval band played patriotic airs. Regular batteries of cameras and cinemas clicked as the Prince stepped ashore.

The papers here publish special illustrated numbers in honour of the Prince's arrival.

TRIPLETS IN KINGSTOWN.

FIRST CASE IN THE DISTRICT.

Mrs. Catherine Dunne, wife of Michael Dunne, 30 Cumberland street, Kingstown, gave birth on Sunday morning to triplets—two girls and a boy—weighing 7lb., 6lb. and 7lb. respectively. The mother and children are all doing well. So far as can be traced, this is the first case of triplets born in Kingstown.

WHAT MR. O'HIGGINS TOLD THE DOCTORS.

"GROTESQUE TRAVESTY."

MR. MAUNSELL REPLIES TO MINISTER.

MR. Kevin O'Higgins yesterday issued the following statement in regard to the interview in the Irish Times, in which Mr. R. Charles B. Maunsell, the President of the Royal College of Surgeons, described the reception of the representatives of the medical profession when the decision of the Free State Executive was announced:—

"Mr. Maunsell has operated on truth with a pick-axe. His account of the reception accorded by me to the medical deputation last Thursday is a grotesque travesty of what passed. In the general impression it conveys of studied discourtesy to the representatives of an important profession, I cannot believe that it would be endorsed by a single colleague of Mr. Maunsell's on the deputation."

Mr. R. Charles B. Maunsell, President of the Royal College of Surgeons, made the following statement in reply to Mr. O'Higgins:—

"I am sorry that the statements made by Mr. O'Higgins to the Sub-Committee on last Thursday, and which were repeated by me to your representative, should read as if Mr. O'Higgins had acted with 'studied discourtesy.'

"Statements made verbally, when printed and read over some days later, often appear harsher than, perhaps, they were meant to be. This is only to be expected, as little pleasantries, if any, which may have been interspersed amongst the more important statements, are, of course, not reported in a resume of what occurred. One such pleasantry might now be recorded.

"Mr. O'Higgins said that the scare statements made by the doctors are only a bogey to frighten the Government. 'They remind me of a boy in the country trying to frighten people by placing a candle in a hollow turnip.' This, and like witty remarks, put us quite at our ease, and showed us that Mr. O'Higgins had the greatest respect for the opinions of the medical profession.

"Mr. O'Higgins is a master of invective and sarcasm, as many of his public speeches and writings will show. I am certain he does not mean to hurt anyone's feelings, but the result is not often a happy one.

"In my interview with your representative I made no statement which I am not willing to verify on oath. Some of the statements are extraordinary and almost 'unthinkable,' but they are an accurate resume of what was said.

"I am quite willing to accept Mr. O'Higgins's implied assurance that he did not mean to be discourteous to the members of the Sub-Committee, but no amount of argument could absolve him from the 'studied discourtesy' of his statements referring to the report of the original Advisory Committee, and of his remarks about those who advocated the cause of the medical students in the public Press."

DR. HENNESSY'S VIEW.

"The statement of Mr. R. C. B. Maunsell in the Irish Times dealing with our interview with Mr. K. O'Higgins on Thursday, on the face of it is not a verbatim report of the proceedings, but it substantially conveys, in effect, what Mr. O'Higgins stated and implied," said Dr. Thomas Hennessy, T.D., to an Irish Times representative yesterday.

DR. MAGENNIS REPLIES.

"The statements made by Mr. R. C. B. Maunsell, M.D., and which Mr. Kevin O'Higgins has declared cannot be substantiated, are to my mind substantially correct."

Thus Dr. Edward Magennis, a member of the General Medical Council and past President of the Irish Medical Association, expressed himself to an Irish Times representative last night, when asked his opinion on the subject of Mr. Kevin O'Higgins's attack on the statement (published in our columns yesterday) made by Mr. Maunsell, President of the Royal College of Surgeons, in which he detailed a brief résumé of the main points of the conversation which took place between Mr. Kevin O'Higgins and the members of the Advisory Sub-committee which waited on the Government at Government Buildings on Thursday last.

"It is very embarrassing to me to discuss this matter at all," he said. "I have been in the negotiations concerning the Medical Acts from the start, and was one of the deputation which waited on the Government on Thursday. I must say that the Government has not treated us properly.

"First of all we were to have met President Cosgrave and the Minister for Local Government on last Tuesday in, as we then thought, our advisory capacity. This was countermanded, and we received notice saying that President Cosgrave could not meet us that day, but would be in a position to do so the following Thursday.

THE UNNAMED SUPPORTERS.

"But on Thursday President Cosgrave did not appear. Instead Mr. Kevin O'Higgins, the Minister for Justice, was there to take his place.

"I understood," continued Dr. Magennis, "that we were called to confer with the Government on this question and to discuss the pros and cons of the matter, but instead of that I found that Mr. Kevin O'Higgins had come prepared with the unanimous decision of the Executive Council, to the effect that the existing condition of affairs could not continue after next February.

"And so we were put out of consideration altogether—we who represented the whole medical profession in the Free State.

"At that meeting Mr. Kevin O'Higgins drew the attention of the deputation to a pile of documents on a table, and said that 'those documents contain the opinions of practitioners all over Ireland who are opposed to the continuance of the present system of registration.' No attempt was made then, even confidentially, to divulge the names of those whose opinions had settled the Government's policy before consultation with the established representatives who had been chosen to confer with and advise the Government.

"And then, speaking on behalf of the Executive Council and President Cosgrave, Mr. O'Higgins said—'We have gone carefully into the matter and this is our decision.'

"IRREPARABLE INJURY."

"I want to emphasise this much," our informant continued, "that even should the Government not go on with its proposal—which for its own good it should not—the very action it has taken in bringing up the whole question, in discussing it, and in everything else connected with the matter, it has done an irreparable injury to the licensing and teaching bodies, to the hospitals themselves, and, most of all, to the status and reputation of the Irish medical profession.

"What has been universally lost sight of is that on the General Medical Council there are Irishmen as well as Englishmen and Scotsmen, and that the Irish representation on it is out of all proportion to the population. This fact alone shows that it is not an English institution at all.

THE TRIBUNAL.

"One of the alleged grievances of the Irish practitioners is that they object to being tried by Englishmen in penal cases for professional misconduct. I have been a member of the General Medical Council for thirteen years, and I certainly would prefer, if I were charged with professional misconduct, to be tried by that tribunal than by any other tribunal I have ever seen, read or heard about.

"The Council, to my mind, errs on the side of leniency, if at all. I have always found them just in their decisions.

"If the Free State Government can get the British Government to consent to a reciprocity, then, I say, they will have obtained a most unexpected result, and will have shown that they exercise a greater influence over the British Government than people give them credit for."

T.D.'S STRONG PROTEST.

"NO BETTER THAN QUACKS."

MISTAKEN NOTION OF NATIONAL DIGNITY.

'ILL-CHOSEN & FUTILE,' SAYS DR. HENNESSY.

Mr. T. Hennessy, T.D., who is the Irish Medical Secretary, in a statement to the Irish Times, says:—

It would appear that the only cause for the ruin of medical science in the Free State by the Executive Council is a mistaken notion of national dignity. The medical representatives went to meet President Cosgrave on the 13th instant to discuss the question of medical registration in all its bearings, including the question of national dignity. The medical deputation selected as its spokesman Dr. Denis Coffey, President of University College, Dublin, whose opinion with regard to the question of national dignity and as an educationalist is entitled to no secondary place in this country.

ON TERMS OF EQUALITY.

Anyhow, we learned that Mr. O'Higgins did not come to meet us to discuss the question of medical registration, but to announce peremptorily that the Executive Council had decided not to continue the existing arrangements for medical registration, and that this decision was final and unalterable.

Dr. Coffey, however, was permitted to make his statement, in which he clearly showed that the existing arrangements were not only for the benefit of medical science in this country, but were not in any way derogatory to the national status. The General Medical Council is a joint body mainly made up of British and Irish representatives elected by the medical schools and the medical practitioners resident in Great Britain and Ireland. Its chief functions are:—

1—To prescribe the standard of medical education;

2—To keep the medical register; and

3—To remove from the register medical practitioners who are guilty of certain offences.

Ireland, in a national sense, is on perfect equality with England in all the functions discharged by the General Medical Council. Nobody ever heard of any votes being taken in the General Medical Council on national lines. There is no room for insularism or intensive nationality in the furtherance of medical science. If English doctors, under the existing system, have a voice in the medical education and control of Irish doctors, so have Irish doctors an equal voice in the same matters with regard to English doctors. If this is derogatory to the national status of Ireland, it should also be derogatory to the national status of England.

ILL-CHOSEN AND FUTILE.

The action of the Executive Council, so far as it is a gesture towards national independence, is ill-chosen and futile. No doubt, it will mean, as claimed for it, that there will be a self-contained and isolated medical profession in the Free State, consisting of some fifteen hundred underpaid and generally ill-treated medical practitioners, for whom the present Government has refused to do anything to improve their conditions. In fact, in a recent medical report, the Government representative on the Committee of Inquiry devotes some columns to show that dispensary doctors are too well paid when they receive an average of £250 per annum, less, in many cases, than their travelling expenses.

"NO BETTER THAN QUACKS."

President Cosgrave makes a mistake when he states that the reputation made by Irish doctors in other countries did not depend on their names being in any particular list. Without being on one of the lists referred to their legal standing would not be better than quacks, and they could not have made reputations for themselves and their medical schools.

As the result of the decision of the Executive Council, doctors with Irish diplomas will have no better standing than quacks in those countries where hitherto they were, with their colleagues, on terms of professional equality. There are no new guards or "old guards" in the Irish medical profession, although there is reason to believe that the graduates of our youngest University—the National University—will suffer most, and that its medical school, with its historic past, will be only a shadow of its former self.

POSITION IN CORK.

PROFESSOR O'SULLIVAN ON THE HARDSHIPS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

CORK, Monday.

The announcement of the decision of the Executive Council to establish an Irish Medical Register as from February next, when the arrangement with the General Medical Council ceases, came as a surprise to Cork medical professors and practitioners. It had been generally known that a movement with this object had been on foot for some time past, but with the entire Irish medical profession opposed to it, it was thought that the scheme would be abandoned.

The medical men of the city were slow to express their personal views for publication, but everyone of those interviewed protested against the Government's decision.

LEFT STRANDED.

The Medical School of Cork University College has nearly 400 students at present on the register, and it was taken as a matter of course that the majority of those taking their degrees would experience little difficulty in getting engagements either in the British Isles or in the Colonies, as it was apparent that all could not get practices or official positions in the Free State. If the decision of the Executive Council is adhered to many will be left stranded.

Professor O'Sullivan, Professor of Medicine in University College, Cork, and a member of the governing body of the college, in an interview to-day said that he had nothing to say about the political side of the matter, but if the Government's decision was carried out, it meant that medical education in this country was dead.

"The people of Munster should realise that the Medical School of the University kept university education alive in the South; for the Medical School and the Engineering School had been the backbone of the place for years."

The greatest hardship, he pointed out, was that the medical student who was coming to his final examination, after three or four or five years' study, was practically abandoned.

HITTING THE SCHOOLS.

"At this September's examinations over 70 students will be up for their final, and, in addition, there would sit the post-graduate students for their M.D. degree. It speaks well for the college when the post-graduate students take their further courses in Cork. This is the last batch that will be registered under the old rules. The next batch, who come up in March, will simply be registered in the Irish Free State, and cannot get positions out of Ireland. If the medical students go across the water, or to Belfast, to finish their courses, they will have to pay all their examination fees—a very considerable sum of money—over again. The hardship on these men is extremely great.

"The decision means that the Schools of Medicine in the Free State will have to shut down—it is rumoured that Galway already has been shut—and the great danger if the Medical Schools are knocked on the head is that it will react upon the standard of the medical examinations. The standard in Cork has been as high as in any part of the world, so much so that our men were always accepted for positions."

Dr. O'Sullivan said that he hoped that before definite action was taken wiser views would prevail, and that matters would be allowed to remain as they are.

FATAL ALPINE ACCIDENT.

MARSEILLES, Monday.

A telegram from Montiers Tarentaise states that Mrs. Dick May, an English author, whose home was in Paris, fell into a ravine while attempting to climb alone the Petis Mont Blanc, from Pralagnan, and was killed. The body was recovered last night. Mrs. Dick May was the author of several novels, of which "Le Cas de George Arrel," published in 1892, is the best known.—(Times telegram.)

FREE STATE'S FIRST SUGAR FACTORY

IN THE VALLEY OF THE BARROW.

SITE NOT YET CHOSEN.

The first sugar beet factory in the Irish Free State will be established in the valley of the Barrow, but whether the site shall be in Carlow or in Athy has yet to be settled. The ultimate decision will be announced with the least possible delay.

This information was imparted to deputations from Athy and Carlow when received by Sir Maurice Lippens in Brussels on Friday last.

Some difficulties, Sir Maurice pointed out, had arisen in regard to the site, and, in a scheme of such magnitude, it was important that every point should be carefully considered.

The Athy deputation comprised:—Senator McEvoy, Mr. John Conlan, T.D.; Mr. W. Davin, T.D.; Mr. S. J. Minch, and Mr. J. J. Flynn.

The Carlow deputation:—Mr. E. Duggan, Chairman of the Urban Council; Mr. E. J. Brougham, and Mr. W. A. Lawler.

Both deputations had separate conferences with Sir Maurice Lippens earlier in the week, and spent the intervening period visiting some of the beet sugar factories in Belgium.

BELGIAN WAR DEBT TO U.S.

A FINAL AGREEMENT TO-DAY.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENTS.

BRUSSELS, Monday.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs states that the reports from New York concerning the progress of the discussions between United States and Belgian representatives on the question of the Belgian debt are not authoritative, since the two Governments have agreed not to make any communications to the Press, in order to facilitate th successful outcome of the negotiations.

PLYMOUTH, VERMONT, Monday.

The President this morning had two hours' conference on the Belgian negotiations with Mr. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, and Senator Smoot, the two leading members of the Debt Funding Commission, in the porch of the Coolidge homestead, which had been screened off to afford seclusion.

The following statement, in the President's handwriting, was given to newspaper men at noon:—

"Secretary Mellon and Senator Smoot reported to the President the details of the Washington conference. Progress is satisfactory. No deadlock has developed. The Secretary and Senator came to inform the President of the proposals before making a final agreement. The conference will re-convene at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, when, it is expected, a final agreement may be reached, after which a full and complete statement will be given to the Press by the American Commission."

LEOPARD HUNTING IN THE BOIS.

PARIS STUDENTS TO "HELP" AUTHORITIES.

PARIS, Monday.

"Have you seen the leopard?" everyone was asking to-day. The newly-acquired specimen from Abyssinia, which escaped from the Jardin d'Acclimatation yesterday, is still at large. An army of keepers and policemen continued to beat the coverts of the Bois de Boulogne this afternoon, but hitherto without as much as sighting the quarry.

This evening the hunt assumed a wildly burlesque form. A large party of artists from the Montmartre quarter have decided to organise a battue for to-night. The hunters will muster in Montmartre, and are then setting forth for the Bois, provided with lanterns.—(Reuter.)

STINNES' MEN STILL UNPAID.

"MILLIONAIRE" WHO CANNOT RAISE £5,000.

BERLIN, Monday.

Herr Edmund Stinnes has not yet succeeded in getting sufficient money together to pay the employés at the Aga Motor Works last week's wages in full, and it is now admitted that unless some capital is soon forthcoming the works will have to close down, throwing thousands of people out of employment. The workers' representatives appear to view Herr Stinnes' gift of two million marks worth of shares in the Aga Company with some suspicion, and would, apparently, prefer to see solid cash instead of paper documents, which are worth very little, and would be difficult to dispose of. They have hitherto given no official reply to the offer, and are still deliberating upon it.

Meanwhile Herr Stinnes is continuing his efforts to get the Prussian Government to aid him financially, and negotiations with the circles concerned have been proceeding to-day.

It is reported that the representative of a big American motor car factory has also been in touch with Stinnes regarding the sales of the entire Aga Works. If the deal comes off the works would be extended to be devoted to mass production of cheap motor cars, which are badly wanted in Germany.

It is announced that a Rhenish industrialist, whose name is not given, has offered Stinnes a loan of six thousand marks, free of interest, to show his confidence in the Aga concern. To such a pass has the once mighty and all-powerful Stinnes firm come.—(Reuter.)

KING FEISUL IN LONDON.

HIS MAJESTY INDISPOSED.

King Feisul, accompanied by a few members of his suite, arrived at Victoria Station, London, yesterday afternoon, and was met by a representative of the King, and by officials of the Foreign Office. He was attired in ordinary European costume. He has been staying in Paris, and it is understood that he will be in London for some time.

Reuter's Agency learns that King Feisul, who had first intended to spend a week or two at a health resort on the Continent before coming to London, changed his plans at the last minute, under the advice of his English doctor, who accompanied him from Baghdad, owing to abdominal trouble. His medical adviser ordered King Feisul to proceed direct to London, and on his arrival he went at once to bed.

Mr. Ferguson, the Premier of Ontario, has announced that a Commission will be appointed to investigate the effects of Regulation Seventeen, which restricts French teaching in the schools of the Province and provides for the teaching of English in French-speaking districts.

LATE NEWS.

POSITION OF IRISH DOCTORS.

EFFECT OF THE DECISION.

There were many inquiries yesterday at the office of the General Medical Council as to the effect of the decision of the Free State Government to establish a separate Medical Register for the twenty-six counties of Southern Ireland, says The Times. The British Medical Council has not yet been officially informed of the Free State Government's decision, and is, therefore, not desirous of making any statement. It may be pointed out, however, that the effect of the decision is to place Ireland in the same position as that of any other Dominion.

It would be the duty of Ireland to apply to this country to have the qualifications of its medical men recognised on a reciprocity basis, in accordance with the provisions of the Medical Act of 1886. To do this a meeting of the Privy Council must be called at the instance of the King, and if it were decided to apply Part II. of the Act to Ireland, the Free State would then occupy the same position as the other Dominions.

The Act lays down that where a person shows to the satisfaction of the Registrar of the General Medical Council that he holds some recognised Colonial medical diploma, or diplomas, granted to him in a British possession, to which the Act applies; that he is of good character, and that he is, by law, entitled to practise medicine, surgery and midwifery in such British possession, he shall, on application to the said Registrar, and on payment of such fee, not exceeding £5, as the General Medical Council may, from time to time, determine, be entitled, without examination in the United Kingdom, to be registered as a Colonial practitioner, in the Medical Register.

If Part 2 of the Act is applied by Order of the Privy Council, the Free State Government would have to grant reciprocity of treatment, and register English practitioners practising in Ireland.

It would appear that a majority of medical opinion in Ireland is in favour of the status quo. It is stated that at the present time a large number of medical men qualify in Ireland, particularly through Trinity College, and that their number is in excess of what the country can absorb.

PEACE, OR WAR, IN MOROCCO.

MARSHAL PETAIN'S VISIT.

Marshal Pétain leaves to-day for Morocco, and Marshal Lyautey, after a very trying summer, is reported to be coming shortly to France to take the waters at Vichy, observes The Times. An enterprise in which France has achieved brilliant success must be rendered secure against a new danger, and the object of Marshal Pétain's new visit to Morocco is clearly to take all possible military precautions for the conservation and development of the great work that Marshal Lyautey has accomplished both for France and for the Moroccan peoples in the dominions of the Maghzen.

So far the Franco-Spanish agreement, with its somewhat indefinite possibilities, seems to be satisfactory, adds The Times. It is, at any rate, a reassertion on the part of the two protecting Powers—of those who were, in effect, made the mandatories of Europe before there was any League of Nations to issue mandates—of their joint responsibility for the peace and good government of a region which in the past has given Europe very great anxiety. Now, in the changing circumstances, it is a question of real peace or continued war with Abd-el-Krim.

There have been no formal negotiations, but a number of unofficial intermediaries have been very active for weeks past. A remarkable feature of this war, by the way, has been the publicity of its military and diplomatic strategy. Abd-el-Krim's position as virtual ruler of the Riff is recognised both by France and Spain. But what form can this recognition possibly take in the present conditions? Abd-el-Krim claims, as a preliminary to negotiations, a declaration of the complete independence of an inchoate Riff Republic. Practically this is impossible. There are great advantages for Abd-el-Krim in a wise use of his present opportunity. He might be able to consolidate some of his undoubted gains. By persistence in extreme and impossible claims he would run the risk of losing them all.

POSTAL STRIKE AT SHANGHAI.

SERVICES DEMORALISED.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.
FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

SHANGHAI, Monday.

The entire staff, numbering more than two thousand, of the Chinese Post Office at Shanghai, struck work early this morning, completely tying up the Shanghai foreign and domestic mail services.

The strike was instigated by the Cantonese Radicals, who were responsible for forcing the strike at the Post Offices of Shameen and Hong Kong.

There was severe rioting this morning following the strikers' withdrawal, and during the melée a Chinese policeman shot one of the postal clerks.

The Post Office is located in the Foreign Settlement, and this is the first time that trouble has developed since the foreign post officers were withdrawn as the result of the Washington Conference.

ARMY MANŒUVRES.

OPERATIONS OVER SIX COUNTIES.

(FROM OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT.)

Movements of British troops into the manœuvres area began yesterday. By the middle of next week most of the two armies that are to operate over six counties, with Andover as the central point, will be on the ground to complete ordinary training, preparatory to the September manœuvres. A strenuous month or five weeks is before them.

There will be an improvement in the identity marks of the opposing forces. The old arrangement was for one side to wear a white cap band, which was not unknown to be discarded, or to be resorted to, by small parties, as occasion suggested, acting, no doubt, on the principle that all was fair in war. One force will now be distinguished by steel helmets, and the other will wear the ordinary Service cap.

Special arrangements have been made for settling farmers' compensation claims virtually on the spot, thus avoiding all the correspondence and delays that in earlier days made the presence of troops unpopular with the countryside.

LONDON AERO CLUB.

BIG RUSH OF APPLICANTS.

FROM OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT.

So successful has been the invitation for applicants to join the London Aero Club that the list has been closed with a membership of 140. This is one of the clubs which have been organised under the Government scheme for the training of civilian pilots on light aeroplanes. Sir Philip Sassoon, the Under-Secretary for Air, is to open the club on Wednesday at Stagg lane, Edgware, and, for the present, instruction will be carried out on two machines of the De Haviland Moth type. This is the type of machine upon which Mr. Alan Cobham earlier in the year made a trip of nearly a thousand miles in one day.

Among the first members of the club are members of Parliament, stockbrokers, solicitors, and artisans. Several women will be among those who will begin their flying instruction in the course of the next few weeks. So keen is the desire among the members to take the air that it may be necessary to ballot for the first positions on the instruction list.

COLOGNE TRAGEDY.

IRISH SOLDIER FOUND WITH THROAT CUT.

COLOGNE, Monday.

Sergeant T. W. Macken, of the 1st Battalion, the Royal Ulster Rifles, was found with his throat cut to-day and died in hospital. He was a native of Dublin.

HOBBS SCORES 101.

126 CENTURIES.

W. G. GRACE'S RECORD EQUALLED.

AN ANALYSIS.

Yesterday at Taunton Hobbs realised his ambition, and by scoring 101 equalled the record standing to the credit of Dr. W. G. Grace of 126 centuries in first-class cricket.

It was his thirteenth century this season, and how difficult it was to get can be gauged from the fact that his twelfth was scored just four weeks ago against Kent. How near a thing it was can only be appreciated by the crowd at Taunton on Saturday when they saw him caught at cover by Bridges off the fourth ball of the first over, and in a roar of disappointment failed to hear the umpire "no-ball" R. Robertson-Glasgow.

Subsequently he batted faultlessly, but when stumps were drawn was still 9 runs short of the century.

The 9 came yesterday morning, and another record went in this record-breaking age. One can almost imagine the relief with which Hobbs flashed out after the century was passed and started for the pavilion while the scorer wrote the brief legend: c. Hill b. Bridges 101.

W. G.'s RECORD.

A comparison of the two feats is well-nigh impossible. Conditions were too widely different. Nowadays run-getting on modern wickets is a simpler task than that with which "W. G." was faced. Again, for many a long year the "Grand Old Man" took a full share of the bowling, as his record of 2,876 wickets in first class cricket testifies.

On the other hand, but for the break of four years, 1915-1918, it is probable that Hobbs' total would now be very much higher, something like 160 if the chances of at least one Colonial tour be taken into account.

Rather more than twenty years ago, at the age of 22—he is now in his forty-third year—Hobbs showed what he might become. Qualified for Surrey, he played his first match against Essex, and scored 28 and 155. From that he has progressed step by step, until to-day he stands the master batsman of modern times.

Whether he is the equal of or superior to "W. G." does not really matter. Both have shown us how the game should be played, and the lesson for the present-day player is: "Attack the bowling."

OYSTER PROSPECTS.

DULL LOOK-OUT FOR IRISH BEDS.

The oyster season, which begins on September 1, promises, so far as the Irish beds are concerned, to be even worse than last year's. "It's a blue look-out," was the reply of one of the bed-owners in Galway, writing this week to a Dublin customer.

Those Irish oysters which sell in the Dublin market come mostly from the shores of Galway Bay, north and south, on a stretch known as the Red Bank. These shores were storm-swept severely last year, and great damage was done to the beds. One cultivator alone lost seven thousand oysters, as well as boats and gear. The season 1924-25 was, therefore, brought to a premature close, with record prices ruling in Dublin. Before that event, however, oysters last year were sold at half-a-crown a dozen in the beds. It is impossible as yet to say what this season's prices will be.

Oysters are cultivated also on the southern shores of Carlingford Lough, but not to the same extent as was done some years ago. Lacking in lime, they are not like the western fish, and are sent, for the most part, for the summer trade in the Isle of Man and Blackpool.

TYPHOON IN JAPAN.

THOUSANDS OF HOUSES FLOODED.

OSAKA, Monday.

The typhoon which swept over Osaka, Kyoto and the vicinity to-day has done extensive damage to the telegraph and telephone wires. Hundreds of telephones, both here and at Kyoto, are out of commission, while thousands of houses in the low-lying districts of Osaka have been inundated. The waters of all the rivers are enormously swollen, but so far they have not overflowed their banks. The damage to railways and shipping is slight.—(Reuter.)

WEMBLEY £100 PRIZE.

The number of visitors to the British Empire Exhibition on Saturday was 93,790. The winner of the £100 prize for the nearest forecast was Miss Bailey, Elmcroft, Kenton lane, Harrow Weald, whose figure was 93,791.

COAL SUPPLY SAFE

RELATION OF DUBLIN'S RIVAL UNIONS.

Further large quantities of coal were drawn yesterday from the coal yards which have been opened by the Dublin Coal Merchants' Association. Good progress was also made in the discharging of coal boats now in the docks. Altogether the situation has materially improved, and there seems to be little danger of any further shortage.

Householders now are able to obtain any quantity of coal that they require, but it is stated that the hawkers are still keeping up the prices by two and three shillings a bag. The only remedy for this is for the merchants again to undertake the delivery of coal as quickly as possible.

It is understood that some of the men belonging to the Workers' Union of Ireland have expressed a desire for a ballot as to whether they should work in company with members of the Irish Transport Union, but it is doubtful whether this will be granted.

BRUTAL ASSAULTS.

On the other hand, reports have been received of eight different cases where members of the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union were set upon, under the cover of darkness, by gangs of men, and gravely assaulted.

Last Saturday, at Butt Bridge, a man named Robert Patterson was the victim of a cowardly attack, receiving a severe beating before being allowed to go. Two other men, named John Ryan and Christopher Quigley, were set upon in Talbot street that evening, and on the following day two further cases of this kind of assault took place in Sheriff street. A hawker carting coal from the Customs House Docks had his load of coal upset on the street last Saturday.

TWO HOUSES RAIDED.

There were two particularly flagrant cases where the houses of two members of the Transport Union were entered.

On Sunday night a number of men raided the apartments occupied by Andrew McDonnell, 24 North Great George's street. One of these men, it is stated, had a revolver, with which he threatened McDonnell and his wife and child, aged three years, who were in the room with him. They then seized McDonnell, took him out of the room, beat him, and threw him down the stairs.

As a result of this outrage, police have been put on guard outside the house, a fact which attracted a great deal of attention in the neighbourhood yesterday. All day long a crowd of people stood opposite the house, waiting to see whether anything further would occur.

The second case, which has aroused deep indignation, is that of a young man, Edward Corrigan, who is about to be married, and had furnished apartments for that purpose. Late on Saturday night the rooms, which are in Gardiner street, were broken into. The bedding was cut up and the furniture was destroyed.

MEN RETURNING TO WORK.

Apart from these aggravated attacks, it is stated that an attempt was made to rob one of Messrs. Rourke's van-drivers of a bag of money which he had in his possession. The police are making investigations, and are reported to have made arrests in one case.

In the meantime, despite these methods of intimidation, more and more men are returning to work.

HURLED THROUGH WIND-SCREEN.

TWO KILLED IN NORTHERN ROAD ACCIDENTS.

Two fatal road accidents are reported from the North.

John Murray, aged 33, a labourer, Moneyneenagh, Co. Derry, was riding a push bicycle outside Draperstown on Saturday night when he collided with an oncoming motor car and was hurled through the wind-screen. His throat was badly cut by the glass, and he bled to death before help could be procured. He had also sustained severe injuries to the head.

The driver of the motor car, Patrick Haveron, was detained after the occurrence, and has been released on bail pending an inquest.

A farmer named Robert Hamill, aged about 65, single, and residing at Groggan, Randalstown, sustained fatal injuries through coming into collision with a motor car while cycling towards his home on Saturday afternoon. He had reached a sharp bend on the road in the townland of Tullygarley, when he collided with a motor car owned by Mr. William Thompson, Cookstown, and driven by a man named William Moody.

At an inquest yesterday the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence, which was that Hamill died as a result of a fractured skull and concussion of the brain. The Coroner remarked that the County Council was greatly at fault for not having those dangerous corners remedied. Motor drivers should be more careful, particularly motor cyclists, who were "the most reckless people in the world."

An extraordinary accident befell a young man named John Duffy, Enagh Lough, Co. Derry, on Sunday night. He was sitting on the ditch at a sharp turn on the road, near his residence, when a motor car, in taking the bend, struck him. He was conveyed to the Derry City Infirmary, where it was found that he had sustained a fracture of the left leg.

Robert Rosborough, aged nine years, Spring street, Belfast, was knocked down by a motor car in the vicinity of Tennent street yesterday afternoon. He sustained severe injuries to the head, and was removed to the Royal Victoria Hospital.

ALLEGED TREASONABLE DOCUMENTS.

At Moville District Court yesterday Mr. Edward O'Brien, M.A., defeated Republican candidate at the recent Donegal elections, was charged with having possession of treasonable documents, which were found in a mattress in an outhouse during a raid. Mr. Walsh, District Judge, refused informations, on the grounds that the documents, relating to last year, were not sufficiently recent to justify the returning of the defendant for trial. Mr. O'Brien said that he knew nothing about them, and had not been connected with the association referred to for the past five years.

TOWN COUNCIL "SCENES."

SOCIALIST MEMBER AGAIN EJECTED BY POLICE.

A Socialist member of the Aberdeen Town Council—Councillor Fraser Macintosh—who, at the last two meetings, was ejected by the police, who were called in following his refusal to accept the Chairman's rulings or to withdraw from the Chamber, created a twofold scene yesterday.

Although suspended until such time as he should see fit to apologise, he took a seat amongst the Councillors yesterday afternoon, and persisting in defiance of the Lord Provost in his refusal to apologise, he was taken outside the meeting place by four policemen, without, on this occasion, offering any resistance, as he did a fortnight ago. He, however, made his way back unobserved to the Council Chamber by an unguarded doorway of an adjoining hall and loudly protested against the part of the procedure which he had heard following his re-entry.

The Lord Provost rebuked the police for allowing Councillor Macintosh to have so evaded them, and again ordered his ejection. As the officers of the law were in process of ejecting him, the offending Councillor paused at the doorway to wish a good-day to the Chairman, and a Labour colleague began to sing: "For he's a jolly good fellow." The ordinary business of the meeting then proceeded, a third attempt at entry on the part of Councillor Macintosh being foiled.

DOMINIONS AND THE EMPIRE.

RELATIONS TO FOREIGN POLICY.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S PROPOSALS.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Monday.

Sir Robert Borden, in a speech before the Institute of Politics to-day, discussed the problem of giving the Dominions of the British Empire an adequate voice in determining the Empire's foreign policy. He expressed the opinion that the problem was not an insoluble one, and he declared that the British Commonwealth had a remarkably healthy habit of holding together most strongly when its need was the greatest.

He added:—I pay little attention to those voices that occasionally predict the disintegration of the Commonwealth and the establishment of separate nations. Canada could attain that status to-morrow if her people so desired, but such a desire is wholly wanting.

Among Sir Robert Borden's recommendations were:—

1—That the Canadian High Commissioners in London should be made members of their own Governments, and should receive the status of Privy Councillors, to enable them to attend Cabinet meetings when summoned.

2—That the League of Nations Dominion representatives should meet before each annual session of the League Assembly to discuss common problems as applied to the Dominions, and that the Ministers of the Crown and High Commissioners, acting as representatives at the Assembly, should spend at least a week in London discussing matters on the agenda of the Assembly, and also questions touching foreign relations.

3—That each Dominion should send a strong representative to the League Assembly, and that each Dominion should develop and strengthen its Foreign Affairs Department.

Sir Robert Borden said that he viewed as unwise the proposal that the Governor-General of each Dominion should possess diplomatic functions, besides being the representative of the Crown, as this might arouse a quite unfounded suspicion of interference by Downing street, which was the bugbear of certain persons.—(Reuter.)

BOUNDARY PROBLEM.

A NORTHERN VIEW.

Addressing the annual meeting of the North Derry Unionist Association at Limavady yesterday, Sir Malcolm Macnaghten, Imperial Parliamentary representative of the constituency, alluded to the boundary question. He said that there might be a decision which could be accepted by the people of Ulster, and that would be a reasonable rectification of the existing border, provided the three frontier towns—Derry, Enniskillen, and Newry were left to Northern Ireland. Newry was vital to the economic existence of Northern Ireland, and any attempt to take her from it would result in the whole trouble breaking out again. If these three frontier towns were left in Northern Ireland the rectification of the border would be a comparatively simple matter.

HERRING FISHING.

GOOD PRICES IN THE NORTH.

In connection with the herring fishing industry in Northern Ireland, there were engaged at Kilkeel during last week twelve local boats, one Free State, two Portavogie, and five Scottish steam drifters. The quality of the herrings was good, the demand keen, and prices high. Notwithstanding the unsettled weather and broken week (fishing was interrupted by the storm of Tuesday and Wednesday) most of the boats did well.

Tides are again favourable this week, and, given good weather, better results are expected.

FERRY BOAT SUNK.

FOUR DROWNED IN THE SEINE.

Lloyd's Rouen Agent telegraphed yesterday that the British steamer Borthwick, Leith for Rouen, with general goods, in coming up the river collided with the ferry boat Caudebec. The latter sank, and four persons were drowned. The Borthwick is detained by fog, and the damage, if any, has not yet been ascertained.

[The Borthwick, 1,124 tons, is owned by Messrs. S. Gibson and Co., Ltd., Leith.]

NEW ISSUE.

RUBBER AND TROPICAL TRUST, LIMITED.

The prospectus is published to-day of the Rubber and Tropical Trust, Ltd., with a capital of £500,000 in £1 shares. The present issue is 250,000 shares, of which 100,000 have been subscribed by, and will be allotted to, the directors and their friends, and 150,000 are now offered for subscription at par. This trust has been formed to carry out the usual objects of a trust interested in plantation concerns. It is proposed to take advantage of setbacks, which in the opinion of the directors are likely to be merely temporary, to invest in fundamentally sound concerns; to acquire interest in promising undertakings at their inception, and to underwrite new issues. It is emphasised that cultivation is increasingly tending to supersede natural growth of wild products. The prospectus contains brief reviews of the principal plantation produce industries. Supply and demand for rubber, it is stated, would appear to be arriving at equilibrium, and the tendency is for native-grown rubber estates to pass into European hands, thus frequently offering favourable opportunities for investment. As regards tea, it is pointed out that it has proved over a long period of years to be the most consistently remunerative form of tropical cultivation. No promotion profits are involved, and the issue has been guaranteed without cash commission in consideration of option to subscribe for 125,000 shares at par up to 1st April, 1930. A feature is the inclusion on the board of a director of the Second Guardian Trust. An investment in a plantation trust under experienced control should give uninitiated investors opportunity of having their risks well spread. The subscription list will close on or before Thursday next, and applicants should use the form attached to the prospectus on page 9.

THROUGH FIRE AND WATER.

GALLANT RESCUES BY R.A.F. OFFICER.

How an officer of the Royal Air Force literally passed through fire and water to save his comrades was disclosed yesterday when an inquest was held into the death of Frederick Charles Copsey, a wireless operator, who lost his life a few minutes after Saturday midnight when Flying Boat S/4039 fell into the Solent off Calshot.

Lieutenant Sackville Russell said that he was in charge of the boat, in which also were Flight-Lieutenant R. Collins, Corporal H. Essam and the wireless operator. They were engaged in night operations over the Solent. At 12.10 a.m. he received a signal from Calshot to descend. The water was very "glassy," and while he was looking at the flare signals to gauge the height, the machine struck the water, bow first.

FLAMES ON THE WATER.

The pilot's combing was telescoped into the pilot's seat, and the witness was entangled in the wreckage. He sank with the machine, but managed to disentangle himself, and rose to the surface. He found the water covered with lighted petrol. His head became involved in the flames, and he plunged under the water. Shortly afterwards he was rescued.

Flight Lieutenant Waring said that the body of the deceased man was found in the hull of the wrecked machine lying at full length, face downwards. Medical evidence showed that Copsey had received extensive injuries to the head and neck, which must have been instantly fatal. A verdict of death from misadventure was returned.

PLUNGE INTO FIRE AND WATER.

The Coroner referred to the great gallantry of Flying Officer Stephen Sunnucks, who put off from Calshot in a fire fighting motor launch to render help. When the flying boat fell the tank burst, and the wreckage was immediately surrounded by flaming petrol, which floated on the water. The launch could not approach within effective distance, but Flying Officer Sunnucks dived into the sea fully clothed, and swam under the burning spirit to the wreckage, which was also in flames.

He boarded the seaplane and released Flight Lieutenant Collins, who was imprisoned in the wreckage, and gave assistance to Flight Lieutenant Russell. He swam with them through and under the flames to safety, and returned to save the others. Corporal Essam had in the meantime got clear.

Twice Flying Officer Sunnucks mounted the hull, but was forced by the great heat to plunge back into the water.

The Coroner said that but for the heroic work of Flying Officer Sunnucks "Lieutenants Russell and Collins would, unquestionably, have perished in the flames."

Copsey, who was aged 22, belonged to Maidenhead, and had been in the Royal Air Force since he was 14. The officers and corporal sustained serious injuries and burns, and the condition of Flight Lieutenant Collins, who is suffering from internal hemorrhage, is somewhat serious.

STEREOSCOPIC FILMS.

AN INGENIOUS INVENTION.

An ingenious and, it is claimed, a hitherto untried method of producing the illusion of solidity in moving pictures has been invented by Mr. Cubitt, an Englishman. It is based on the assumption, first, that a photograph taken by means of a lens of which the aperture equals the distance between the pupils of an ordinary pair of eyes must necessarily contain all the elements that those eyes could embrace, and, secondly, that the impression of solidity made upon the brain by viewing material objects is, in great measure, psychological.

Mr. Cubitt argued that, if the pictures on the screen could be thrown alternately out of and into focus, the eyes of the spectator would be automatically forced to make the necessary muscular efforts to accommodate themselves, and that the latent stereoscopic quality in the picture would thus be appreciated.

The method he has employed to bring about the rapid succession of changes essential is as neat as it is effective. Instead of moving to and fro the objective lens of the projector, he interposes between it and the film a piece of plain optical glass so arranged that it intercepts and, of course, slightly refracts the beam of light after it has passed through each alternate little photograph on the film and before it reaches the lens. The consequence is that in every successive pair of the sixteen or eighteen photographs normally projected on the screen in a second, one photograph is in focus and the second out of focus.

Mr. Cubitt has spent more than twenty years in his efforts to perfect an idea first suggested to him by a chance observation he made, namely, that the image of an ordinary photograph reflected in a plane mirror was not absolutely identical with the original. There was, he noticed, an appreciable amount of distortion due to refraction.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

All the ministers who were appointed to Dublin Circuit at Conference have entered upon the work. The Rev. J. A. Duke has succeeded the Rev. J. M. Alley, both as minister of Rathgar Church and as chairman of the Dublin District. The Rev. H. H. Cornish has succeeded the Rev. B. Brooke Morton, of Dolphin's Barn, and the Rev. Alfred Harbinson the Rev. H. H. Cornish, of Abbey street and Blackhall place Circuit. The Rev. John England and the Rev. R. J. Elliott were appointed to Sandymount and Kingstown respectively, and the Rev. S. E. McCaffrey to Inchicore.

The Methodist Companies of the Dublin Battalion of the Boys' Brigade spent a very pleasant holiday in camp this year. Belmont was not available on this occasion, so they had to go farther afield, and were welcomed most cordially by the Rev. J. W. Johnston, of Newcastle, Co. Wicklow. The boys greatly appreciated the kindness of Mr. Johnston and his family. Mr. Johnston conducted Divine Service in the camp on Sunday. The companies represented came from Rathmines and Rathgar, George's Hall and Sandymount.

A Methodist Conference has not often been called upon to acknowledge so many gifts as the recent Conference at Lincoln. These included Mr. Michael Guttridge's £50,000 for the building and endowment of a new theological training college at Cambridge, Mr. Joseph Rank's £100,000 for the Supernumerary Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, and £50,000 from the same donor to the Home Mission Fund for work in the rural districts; the benefactions of the Right Hon. T. R. Ferens to the Kingswood School for the education of the sons of ministers, and the gift of a primary school in Hull, together with the anonymous donors who had cleared off the debt of £20,000 on the Foreign Mission department of the Church.

Miss H. M. Park, who has been on furlough for some time, sailed last Friday to resume her work as a missionary in Ceylon. Miss Park is a daughter of the Rev. J. O. Park, of Bray.

Mrs. W. H. Green, who was a member of the Wesley Deaconess Institute before her marriage to the late Rev. W. H. Green, has rejoined the institute, and has been appointed deaconess in connection with the Old Leysian Mission, London.

"Lewis Carey," the well-known composer, whose death is announced, was well known in Methodist, as well as in musical, circles. She was a daughter of the Rev. Edward Johnston, a minister of the Irish Methodist Church. For many years Miss Lucie Johnston was the leading contralto in the choir of the City Temple Church, London. Her setting of the hymn, "Nearer, my God, to Thee," is well known.

The Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society offers a medal to every boy or girl who collects £5 or over for the funds of the society. Their names are enrolled on what is called the Juvenile Missionary Collector Distinguished Service Order. The medal is in the shape of a Maltese cross. More than once in recent years the largest amount was collected by an Irish girl. This year Miss Vivienne Musgrave, of Cork, obtained second place with £53 16s. 6d., while Miss Avril Anderson, of Londonderry, collected £35. A very large sum is raised annually for Home and Foreign Missions by the juvenile collectors.

BETTER OUTLOOK IN MOROCCO.

LARGE-SCALE OPERATION.

INSURGENTS MUCH IMPRESSED.

PARIS, Monday.

The following official communiqué from Fez is published here:—

"The Bou Ganous Skiffa and Baw Casa posts were re-provisioned yesterday, the enemy showing but little activity.

"To-day a large-scale operation has been entered upon for the purpose of reducing the Dsoul country. An army corps and a brigade, under the command of General Bouchut, commanding the corps, are taking part in this operation, which is being developed in normal fashion."

An unofficial telegram from Fez says:—With regard to the operations commenced with a view to cleaning up the Jebel country, an intensive preparation against the enemy centres was undertaken by artillery and the Air Force the first thing this morning. The insurgents, much impressed, look as if they were inclined to throw up the sponge at certain points. Marshal Lyautey is proceeding to Wezzan.

The Casablanca representative of the Havas agency has had an interview with Marshal Lyautey, who said that he would never entertain the idea of taking a rest cure or a holiday until they had obtained decisive results in Morocco, for which the improvement that had already set in was the best omen.—(Reuter.)

IMPORTANCE OF SUGAR BEET.

SOME HINTS TO IRISH FARMERS.

Mr. J. A. Smyth, writing in The Irish Statesman of August 15, says that the requirements of sugar beet seed in the United States amount to about 15,000,000 lbs. In 1911 practical steps were taken there to produce native seed. Before that time all the seed was imported from Germany, Austria-Hungary, France, and Russia. The war induced the Americans to extend their operations. Some years ago 90 per cent. of all beet used in the world was grown in Germany and Russia, 69 per cent. being from German-grown seed. In 1916 nine American States grew 5,268 acres of beet seed, which produced 5,211,000 lb. In the following year these States cultivated 4,579 acres, which gave a yield of 5,546,000 lb.

Mr. Smyth says that the cultivation of beet is quite simple. The application of nitrates to the ground before sowing increases the percentage of sugar in the beet, whereas their application during the growth of the crop yields a larger root, with a lower sugar content.

IMPORTANCE OF THE STAND.

Another chief point relative to the raising of a good productive crop is the securing of a good stand. One hundred per cent. stand means that one hundred beets are grown to every one hundred feet. After the preparation of a deep refined bed, the sowing of a plentiful supply of seed is the first means of securing this; secondly, the keeping down of weeds; and, thirdly, careful thinning. In some instances in connection with the latter work, the plants are left but 9 or 10 inches apart. This tends to increase the sugar content in the root. Mr. C. W. O'Doherty, Statistician to the Great Western Sugar Company, has emphasised the importance to the American beet growers of improving the stand. He states that a good stand can be had by securing enough plants after thinning and forcing their growth, and that fertile land gives the greatest yield when beets are planted in 20 inch rows and 12 inches apart. Had a stand of 75 per cent. been secured in America last year, the growers would have increased the revenue, per acre, by 30 dollars, or a total of 7,800,000 dollars.

Mr. O'Doherty gives the statistics of sugar beet grown in eighteen districts of the Great Western Sugar Company last year. The average yield per acre was 12 tons, the average weight of each beet was 26.2 ounces, and the average stand was 56. Through his advice the Americans are now straining every effort to increase the stand this year to 77 per cent., and it is calculated that this will augment the yield by 4½ tons per acre. Hitherto, in experiments in beet culture carried out in this country very little importance had been attached to securing a good stand. Devoting the necessary attention to this point is one of the chief means of raising a good crop.

I have no doubt, says Mr. Smyth, that in this country we can secure a stand of 75 per cent. Let an Irish acre be taken for example, 224 yards by 35. By sowing the seed in lines 20 inches apart we have 63 lines of beet. A full stand means 100 per cent., whereby each line would yield 672 beets. But since 75 per cent. indicates a good crop, it would mean that each line would produce 500 beets, and thus give an aggregate of 31,500 beets. Let us suppose each beet weighs on an average 25 ounces; the yield can be calculated at little short of 22 tons per Irish acre. Last year Mr. Cozzens, of Lucerne, U.S.A., cultivated 30 acres of beet, which gave an average of almost 23 tons per acre.

THE FINANCIAL ASPECT.

Continuing, Mr. Smyth says:—So important is the culture of sugar beet considered in America both from a financial and economic standpoint that a very high authority states it is the only crop that has the decided advantage of rendering a farmer's note acceptable for re-discount in the Federal Reserve Bank of the West. Mr. Skuderna, superintendent of the Research Department of the American Beet Sugar Company, has enunciated last February fourteen great points of a sugar beet crop, the ninth of which is that it has a higher and more stable loan value than any other crop, and the fourteenth is that it makes for a permanent, prosperous and successful agriculture. These are the points that should have been explained to the impoverished Irish farmers of to-day, more especially the £20 valuation men, towards enabling them to keep a firm grip on their homesteads. . . .

It would very much contribute both to the farmer's interests and to the interests of the nation in general, he argues, if the extensive cultivation of this crop were immediately taken up in this country. Its cultivation will develop and stabilise agriculture, and where agriculture is flourishing there prosperity is supreme. In conclusion, Mr. Smyth says:—We must endeavour to get out of the financial morass in which we are wallowing by a well-developed system of agriculture. The raising of sugar beet and its manufacture is as practicable a proposition in this country as in America. Hence we should begin at the industry immediately and avail of all the scientific experiments that have hitherto been made. Our agriculture is poor because we are not beet-growing farmers. "In European countries," writes Dr. Harris, Professor of Agronomy in Utah Agricultural College, "where beet-raising has seen its greatest development, agriculture has a stability not found in the newer countries, where sugar beet has not been introduced." Let our farmers and labourers now prepare and organise towards making a great stride forward in 1926, and in the course of a few years we may be able to produce our own bread and sugar, as well as our own beef, bacon and butter.

BEAM WIRELESS.

PRELIMINARY STEPS TO ERECT IMPERIAL CHAIN.

The British Postmaster-General announces that a site at Winthorpe, near Skegness, for the receiving station for the beam services with Australia and India, was placed by the Postmaster-General at the disposal of the contractors on August 6. A site near Grimsby for the transmitting station was handed to the contractors a few weeks ago, and the stations are due, under the contract, to be completed by May 8, 1926.

According to the Bombay Evening News, the Bombay Government has ordered the acquisition of land at Poona and at Dhond, 45 miles south-east of Poona, respectively 130 and 180 miles from Bombay, with a view to the erection of two beam stations. A number of engineers of the Marconi Company have already arrived to superintend the construction of the stations.

U.S. MARKETS.

STOCKS CLOSED STRONG.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

NEW YORK, Monday.

Stocks opened strong. The favourable Belgian Loan reports and expanding buying in Investment Railroads overcame weakness in some Oil and Motor shares. CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Monday.

WHEAT opened easy. Some early recessions, due to predicted larger Russian shipments, increased North-West receipts and liquidation, were followed by rallies on unfavourable weather reports from the Canadian North-West, bullish Liverpool cables and buying by cash houses. Values declined again later owing to predictions of increased receipts, small seaboard clearances and unloading by bulls, but the market reacted on exporters buying, strength at Winnipeg and the bullish visible supply figures, and closed steady at ⅛c. to ⅞c. gain. Spot easier.

ATHLETICS.

COUNTY MEATH G.A.A. SPORTS.

MILE CYCLE CHAMPIONSHIP OF LEINSTER.

The Meath G.A.A. annual sports were brought off the 16th inst. on the Show Grounds at Navan under the most enjoyable conditions, and the attendance was exceedingly large. A regrettable feature was an accident to the Dundalk cyclist, T. Rogers, who had to be conveyed off the track to the Meath Infirmary, where his injuries were attended to, necessitating four stitches in his forehead. He had previously won the one mile cycle open handicap. In the next cycling event, the One Mile Cycle Championship of Leinster—within 200 yards of the tape, B. J. Donnelly was leading, with his brother N.J. lying close behind, while Rogers was third—when N. J. Donnelly's wheel skidded owing to a tyre trouble, and Rogers, to avoid colliding, ran upon the grass, but struck the posts, and was shot off his machine with tremendous force, falling on his head, and being knocked unconscious for a time. The flat races were well contested, W. W. Ahern winning the 880 yards in 1 min. 56 2-3 secs. Details:—

GREYSTONES OPEN TOURNAMENT.

The weather at Greystones yesterday was decidedly cool, and rain threatened, but none fell, and the opening games of the second annual tournament were played under very fair conditions. Revived last year, after a considerable lapse, the fixture proved most successful, and, if the increased entry this week—nearly three times that of 1924—is any guide, it will not be many years before the tournament regains its old-time position.

Scattered through the various events are a number of first-rank players. In most cases they are paired with those of a lower grade, so that the tournament should possess a value often lacking in more pretentious meetings. Good progress was made yesterday, and play will be continued to-day, starting at 10 o'clock. Details:—

MEN'S OPEN SINGLES—First Round—Major Bredin beat Capt. Hope-Johnstone—3-5 (retired); R. B. Pringle beat R. R. Figgis—6-2, 6-2; D. T. Figgis beat E. C. Micks—6-1, 6-1. Second Round—J. C. Teegan beat M. D. Fox—6-2, 6-0.

LADIES' OPEN SINGLES—First Round—Miss F. Pearson beat Miss M. Wilson—6-1, 6-3. Second Round—Miss H. L. Furney beat Miss D. Oulton—6-1, 6-0.

OPEN MIXED DOUBLES—Second Round—M. D. Fox and Mrs. I. Martin beat D. T. and Mrs. Figgis—4-6, 6-0, 7-5.

THE WIGHTMAN CUP.

A BRITISH VICTORY.

At Forest Hills, U.S.A., on Saturday, the touring team of British women lawn tennis players won the Wightman Cup by four matches to three. The match between Miss Wills and Miss McKane was hard fought throughout. The third and deciding set was a terrific battle, in which both played brilliantly during some very even exchanges. Miss Wills' victory over Miss McKane was really the turning-point in the battle, the tiring effects of this triumph rendering the American champion erratic and ineffective in the final doubles.

Saturday's series required five hours' play involving unusually close contests. There was an unparalleled demonstration by the spectators, which became more unruly as the games progressed, and made vigorous protests against line decisions which were deemed questionable, even going so far as to boo Miss Wills when she appeared for the final doubles after a long delay. Results:—

Singles—Miss McKane beat Mrs. Mallory—6-4, 5-7, 6-0; Miss Helen Wills (U.S.A.) beat Miss Joan Fry—6-0, 7-5; Mrs. Lambert Chambers beat Miss Eleanor Goss (U.S.A.)—7-5, 3-6, 6-1; Miss Helen Wills (U.S.A.) beat Miss McKane—6-1, 1-6, 9-7; Mrs. Mallory (U.S.A.) beat Miss Fry—6-2, 6-0.

Doubles—Mrs. Lambert Chambers and Miss Harvey beat Mrs. Mallory and Miss Bundy (U.S.A.)—10-8, 6-1; Miss McKane and Miss Colyer beat Miss Wills and Miss Brown (U.S.A.)—6-0, 6-3.

BOHEMIAN F.C. "AT HOME."

Bohemians held their annual lawn tennis "at home" at Dalymount Park on Saturday, under ideal weather conditions. An American tournament, open to members and visitors, was won by Mr. S. Guy and Miss K. Bennett, the runners-up prizes being won by Mr. John Doyle and Miss Pearse. The distribution of prizes for American tournaments held during the season, and for the championship competitions, was followed by a Cinderella dance.

UNITED TOWNS LEAGUE.

The semi-final in the above league, played at Skerries, between Drogheda and Skerries, resulted in a win for Skerries by eight matches to nil.

ENGLAND v. SCOTLAND.

England won both Singles matches played yesterday in the international contest against Scotland on the hard courts at St. Andrews, but their representatives had to fight extremely hard to do so. E. Higgs (England) began well against H. G. Mackintosh and took the first set at 6-2. Then the Scot squared matters with a love set. Higgs won a vantage third set at 9-7, and taking the fourth at 6-3 won the match. A keen five-set match followed between M. V. Summerson (England) and A. Blair (Scotland). The Englishman began in convincing style, taking the first two sets, but he, too, was pulled up, Blair winning the third and fourth to square. However, Summerson was the fresher of the two in the final, and he won it with the loss of two games. To-day two Singles and one Doubles match will be played. Results:—

Singles—E. Higgs (England) beat H. G. Mackintosh (Scotland)—6-2, 0-6, 9-7, 6-3.

M. V. Summerson beat Alex. Blair (Scotland)—6-2, 7-5, 5-7, 3-6, 6-2.

DONNYBROOK TENNIS CLUB.

YACHTING.

CLONTARF Y. AND B.C. ACTIVITIES.

The tide served off Clontarf and the wide reaches at the mouth of the Liffey last week, but at no time was there an evening wind with much body in it, and the racing of the club boats suffered in consequence. The worst evening was that of Thursday, when seven boats started at 7.10 p.m., only to be recalled after two hours' drifting, one round then not having been completed.

On the following evening a race, which was in effect a triple bill (third round of Jubilee Cup, first round of Scottish Cup, and a club handicap) was sailed in a light N.E. breeze, and Hawk (Mr. J. S. Kyle) scored a first for all three, while Nan (Mr. J. S. Gibson) and Falcon (Messrs. J. J. Hutchinson and J. W. Paine) were second and third in like manner. By the way, the Jubilee Challenge Cup, presented to the club to commemorate its first 50 years of activity, has been won by May Mischief (Mr. J. S. Ricards).

In the calm—for such it nearly was—on Saturday evening only one round was possible, and even then only two were able to finish—viz., Hawk (winner) and Nan (second). Owing to the lack of a breeze all the others gave up a hopeless struggle to get home before darkness set in.

BOURNEMOUTH REGATTA.

The weather yesterday was lovely, but far too much so for sailing. The wind shifted about from East to South-West, and finally fell flat calm about 3 o'clock, so that all courses had to be shortened.

HANDICAP FOR YACHTS exceeding 100 tons T.M. First prize, £150 and Bournemouth Challenge Cup value 100 gns., presented by Mr. E. Bishop; second, £75; third, £25. Course 45 miles. Britannia, Shamrock, and White Heather took the lead at the start, and stood along the shore to the eastern mark, whilst Lulworth and Susanne stood out to sea; Westward was absent. Lulworth and Susanne did best at first, but the wind favouring the other three, they took the lead, and Shamrock had an easy win. Finish:—

	h.	m.	s.
Shamrock (winner)	3	44	32
White Heather (second)	4	11	28
Lulworth (third)	4	27	34

Britannia and Susanne gave up.

There were no starters for the class not over 100 tons.

In the race for Yachts of the 12-metre class, after a close race, the finishing times were:—

	h.	m.	s.

In the 6-metre class Zenith was first and Terris second. Ayesha, Thelma and Thermopolae gave up.

GREYSTONES OPEN TOURNAMENT.

The weather at Greystones yesterday was decidedly cool, and rain threatened, but none fell, and the opening games of the second annual tournament were played under very fair conditions. Revived last year, after a considerable lapse, the fixture proved most successful, and, if the increased entry this week—nearly three times that of 1924—is any guide, it will not be many years before the tournament regains its old-time position.

Scattered through the various events are a number of first-rank players. In most cases they are paired with those of a lower grade, so that the tournament should possess a value often lacking in more pretentious meetings. Good progress was made yesterday, and play will be continued to-day, starting at 10 o'clock. Details:—

W. G. GRACE'S RECORD EQUALLED.

Quite naturally, Hobbs's feat of equalling W. G. Grace's 126 centuries in first class cricket dwarfed everything else that happened at Taunton yesterday, and a remarkably crowded ground when the game was resumed was eloquent of the public interest in the happening.

Hobbs only required nine runs for his 100, and these he scored off Robertson Glasgow and Bridges, in five singles and a boundary hit, the latter being off a no ball delivered by Robertson Glasgow. His run that completed the 100 was hit to leg off Bridges, but Hobbs only remained to gather another single when he was taken behind the wicket on the leg side by Hill, after batting two hours and fifty minutes without giving an actual chance.

The great batsman had a tremendous ovation on completing his 100, which he acknowledged by raising his bat and by smiling in all directions, while, later, at the end of the over when the Surrey captain took him out a drink of something bubbling and pale-yellow, he raised it in salutation to the spectators. Later in the day he was the recipient of many telegrams and verbal messages of congratulations, one being addressed to "the greatest cricketer in the world, Taunton."

The Surrey innings, which lasted four hours and three-quarters, closed at the ninth wicket, Lockton having to go away owing to illness of his brother. After Hobbs, Jardine played sound cricket and batted two hours and thirty-five minutes before being run out. But the innings which pleased the crowd was that of the Surrey captain, who should have been caught by Ingle behind the bowler when seven, but went on to stay for fifty-five minutes for 59, which included nine 4's. MacBryan and Young delighted the spectators by putting on 184 in two hours and a quarter before they were parted. MacBryan, who had given no chance, being bowled by the Surrey captain. Somerset have now a lead of 64 runs with seven wickets to fall.

The following are the figures of Hobbs's 100:—

2 1 4 2 1 3 1 2 1 3 1 1 2 1 2 2 1 1 1 1 4 1 1 4 1 1 4 1 1 2 1 1 1 1 4 2 1 1 4 1 4 1 3 4 1 2 1 1 1 2 1 1 1 1 4 1 1=100. Actually, Hobbs made 101.

The match at Bradford was again very interesting, as at the end of play Sussex, with eight wickets in hand, required 144 to beat Yorkshire. Yorkshire had a very unhappy time in the early part of the day, losing half their wickets for 77 runs. A capital partnership by Oldroyd and Robinson saved the situation, these two scoring 102 in an hour and fifty-five minutes. Then Macaulay, by hard hitting, made thirty-nine out of forty-nine in forty minutes. Oldroyd was out after a stay of three hours and fifty minutes, making 77. He rendered valuable aid by his defence as well as his scoring performance. Early on, Sutcliffe batted well for 38, but none of the others reached double figures. Browne bowled splendidly and had seven wickets for 62 runs, twice having two wickets in consecutive deliveries. The Sussex fielding was brilliant. The visitors began their second innings with lively batting and Tate hit 51 runs in twenty minutes, and 79 in less than forty-five minutes, before Tate was bowled by Kilner. When stumps were drawn Sussex was 118 for 2 wicekts.

Hearne saved Middlesex from complete disaster at Lords. The one effective bowler, he took six wickets for 55, in nineteen overs and four balls, and the last three for 18 runs. After lunch, and when an arrears of 156 had to be faced, he went in with Dales, and stayed two hours to score 52, by perfect cricket. Despite his work, Middlesex left off only 41 runs ahead, and really two wickets to fall, because Allan stung by a gnat, and Durston, owing to the death of his mother, were absent, and will not take any further part in the match.

There was a thoroughly interesting day's cricket at Nelson. Unfortunately for Derbyshire they were deprived of the services of Morton, their most successful bowler, on the first day. Happily, the fear that he might lose the sight of his right eye was dispelled when he left Burnley Hospital on Saturday night for home, but he is undergoing treatment at the Derby infirmary. With his help the visitors might have made even a better fight of it. As it was, Lancashire scoring 219, left Derbyshire 225 to get to win.

The game at Bournemouth was left in a very, interesting state, Hants, set to get 230 to win, having lost four wickets while scoring 130. As might be expected, with the sunshine very brilliant over the week-end, the conditions for run-getting had become vastly better. The Leicester batting was very uneven. Astill, scoring 43 out of 77 in eighty minutes, again proved the most dependable bat on the side, but C. H. Taylor did most to ensure his county giving Hants a real task. Hants, who were without Tennyson, batted for the last two and a-half hours, but found Astill and Geary very strong in attack. Four wickets fell for 76, and then Jameson indulged in some fine cutting and driving, he and Day advancing the total by 52 in the last forty minutes. Jameson's fifty occupied just over an hour.

The outstanding feature in a remarkable day's cricket at Cheltenham was the catch by which Bryan, fielding as substitute for Green, who retired with a split finger, dismissed Collins. To reach the ball from a lofty drive he covered a dozen yards at full speed and held it low down with the right hand. Collins batted two hours and thirty-five minutes for 68, and was twice missed. His performance was overshadowed by Woolley, who also gave two chances, but scored 176 in four hours, hitting one 6 and twenty 4's. Kent batted five hours and forty minutes for a total of 418, and this gave them a lead of 347. So different was the wicket from Saturday that Gloucester, going in a second time after lunch, did something to atone for their previous collapse. The first wicket yielded 67 and the second 115. Hammond was let off twice, but between whiles made many fine strokes. Subsequently Bloodworth was so severe on Freeman that he completed 50 in forty minutes, and went on to score 62. The venture closed for 347, so Kent won by an innings and 47 runs.

TATE'S DOUBLE.

Against Yorkshire yesterday, Tate reached his thousand runs for the season. As was the case last summer, he is the first player to complete the double 1,000 runs and 100 wickets.

SOMERSET CAPTAIN'S INJURY.

While batting for Somerset against Hants in the match at Bournemouth last Friday, John Daniell, the Somerset captain, received a blow from a ball bowled by Brown. An examination has revealed that one of his ribs was broken. As a consequence Daniell's services will be lost to Somerset for the rest of the season.

BOWLING.

LEINSTER v. BLACKROCK.

There was much jubilation in the ranks of the Blackrock Bowling Club on Saturday afternoon when they defeated a three-rink team of the Leinster Club by 19 shots. The Blackrock team led practically throughout the whole match, the Leinster men being unable to equalise matters. At 15 ends Murphy was 13 to Thomson's 6, but in the next head Thomson got 5. He was only able to add 3 more shots, finishing 14, to Murphy's 16. There was also close scoring in the rink skipped by Howley against West. At the 18th end Howley was only 2 down. He made a good recovery, and at the 19th end the score was equal. He then added another 3, finishing 3 up with 21 as against West's 18. McCann, who was skip for Blackrock for the first time, was the great success of the match, as he ran up the fine score of 27, as against Milling's 7. The latter seemed to be off his game on this occasion, as he was unable to score against McCann.

The following were the teams and scores:—

No. 1 Rink.—Leinster—Shaw, Cassidy, Crawford, Howley (skip)—21. Blackrock—Richardson, Hand, Swan, West—18.

No. 2 Rink.—Leinster—Christie, Douglas, Hayes, Milling (skip)—7. Blackrock—Marshall, Stewart, Waddell, McCann (skip)—27.

No. 3 Rink.—Leinster—Thompson, O'Toole, Heaslip, and R. R. Thomson—14. Blackrock—Bryce, Parkes, J. R. Felton, W. J. Murphy (skip)—16.

Total scores—Blackrock, 61; Leinster, 42.

GOSSIP FROM THE COURSE.

PICAROON'S PROGRESS.

POMANDER FAILS.

KEPPLESTONE WINS BY THREE LENGTHS.

(From Our Travelling Correspondent.)

WOLVERHAMPTON, Monday Night.

I have heard to-day encouraging news of the progress of Picaroon, who has reappeared in the course of the last few days as a live St. Leger candidate. He was sent a good gallop of a mile and three-quarters—the full St. Leger distance—yesterday morning, and he pulled up strongly and well, nor did he seem to be suffering from any ill-effects this morning. A gallop like this, of course, is only an incident in a St. Leger preparation, but it is a hopeful sign, and the colt's progress in the course of the next three weeks will be watched with great interest. It is to be noticed that the bookmakers are sharply curtailing the prices which were on offer against him not many days ago.

If the selling races which opened the pleasant meeting here this afternoon were not of much account—one was won by the infirm Orderly, who was given away by his former owner, Mr. A. Falcon, last year—and were disappointing to backers of favourites, the other races yielded quite good sport. Sir Charles Hyde's half-brother by Phalaris to Welsh Spear, Brazen, put up quite a nice performance in the Dunstall Two-year-old Plate, in which he started at 7 to 1. He was giving 14lb. and more away to everything in the race, and to add to this he made a slow beginning, while the favourite, Fair Slave, jumped off with a clear lead.

Bullock steadily forged ahead, however, on Brazen, and at half-way he was able to draw level with Fair Slave, and in a good race between the pair for the rest of the journey he proved just a little too good, and beat her by a neck, Silver Eagle doing best of the others, and finishing half a length away. This was a great improvement on some of the recent performances of Brazen, and evidently the softer going has enabled him to strike form again.

Pomander had won in great style at Goodwood, and Field Argent had fallen in the race there for the Stewards' Cup. The pair were first and second favourites in the Wyfold Handicap, while Golden Arch, Crimson Dawn and Sun God II. also had backers. The class of Field Argent, however, asserted itself, and, going to the front when they were well into the straight, he won easily by two lengths from Crimson Dawn, with Pomander a head away. It was the first race this season that had been won by the full brother to Amilcar, for whom the Aga Khan gave 9,600 guineas as a yearling, although he had shared the July Handicap with Blarchisseuse last month. He has now, I think, come back to his two-year-old form, and is a smart colt at six furlongs who may win another race or two this season.

The Only Favourite to Win.

Kepplestone was the only favourite to win, and his performance in the Summer Handicap, which he won easily by three lengths and a head from Navy Cut and Trieze, paid a tribute to the merit of Sir Kenneth, who had run away from him in the Bedford Handicap at Kempton Park last week. It was a most convincing performance on the part of Kepplestone here, for there was only one in the race the moment after Donoghue asked him for an effort.

Croat was a very false favourite in the last race, for he was beaten a long way from home, and then Blacon came to gain a clever half-length victory from Fol Espoir.

The racing will be continued here tomorrow afternoon, when The Moy, Dark Fox, Mark Marten and Warways will oppose Waygood in the Ruckley Handicap. WAYGOOD has won his last three races in most convincing style, and he should have no difficulty in carrying his nine stone and winning here. HEARTY is a consistent two-year-old, and may win the Bushbury T.Y.O. Plate, while ROCKETTER may be the best in the Walsall Three-Year-Old Handicap.

The racing will be much better in class at Stockton, where The Mahdi has been sent to oppose Roidore in the Great Northern Ledger. The Mahdi receives a stone, but this may not enable him to beat ROIDORE. MIRAWALA runs for the Wynyard Plate, and this filly from Lieut.-Colonel Loder's stud, who made top price at the Dublin sales last year, showed such good speed in the National Breeders' Produce Stakes at Sandown a month ago, that she is most likely to win on this easy course.

I anticipate a good race for the Stockton Handicap, where a lot of horses like Sosie, The Monk, Tunis, Bucks Yeoman, and Palma Bay are fancied. The handicap was made before Bucks Yeoman ran second to Warden of the Marches at Goodwood, otherwise he would have had more to carry. He divided Pharos and Verdict in the Duke of York Handicap last October, but some of his other performances have been wretched. Palma Bay is thought to have come back to her two-year-old form, and has been very well galloped. I think the race rests between her and THE MONK, and my preference is for the latter. The going will be in favour of WINDSWEPT, whom I expect to see win the Harry Fowler Welter Handicap.

TRAMORE.

MORE GOOD SPORT AT SEASIDE VENUE.

BRISK WIND-UP.

Though, of course, not to equal the size of the crowd which assembled on Saturday the attendance at Tramore yesterday was quite as good as on either of the two opening days. The sport, too, was again of a brisk nature, and only the last couple of events on the card failed to arouse interest. To the end the going remained in splendid order, and all round it was shown that it is not beyond the power of the popular Co. Waterford resort to "house" a four-day gathering.

A resumption was made with the Waterford Hurdle Plate, for which, between Duke of Monaclear and Flying Prince, the wagering was very close. The pair always dominated the situation through the race, but after Flying Prince had come down the hill in rare style he failed to resist the challenge of Duke of Monaclear, who won with something in hand by a length and a half. Ten turned out for the Dunmore Plate, and a very brisk betting medium it proved. Homeland was in most request, but there was also strong demand for several of the others. The race proved as open as it had been regarded, and half a mile from home any one of five or six of them could have been chosen as the winner. Finally, after the last hurdle had been crossed, it became a three-cornered contest between Homeland, Little Alice and White Hill, and with Homeland not seeming to quite relish the strenuous battle, Little Alice just got up on the post to beat him by a neck. Although she started at 10 to 1 the winner did not run unsupported, and, indeed, several nice wagers were accepted about her.

Louvixen was all the rage for the Moderate Plate, and the one best-backed to beat the Maddenstown Lodge candidate was Bealach Conglas. He ran well and made a capital effort to land the spoils, but Louvixen always had his measure and finally won comfortably.

Odds were laid on Father Tom for the Annstown Plate, but well as he ran he was unable to cope with Mary Patricia, who took his measure just after the straight was entered and scored easily. This completed a double event for the Rathbride Manor trainer, M. Dawson, and likewise gave Joseph Canty his second winning ride of the day, so that his average for the meeting was maintained. That jockey scored again subsequently on Ronald Fox, who had only one other to beat in the Castletown Plate, an event on which there was no betting whatever.

Striped Silk gained her second success at the fixture when she soundly trounced her opponents in the Summer Plate. Details:—

STOCKTON.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME AND SELECTIONS.

The programme for the opening stage at Stockton to-day should ensure a fine afternoon's sport, as there is no less than £3,400 to be won, and many horses of good class are expected to do duty. The Stockton Handicap should arouse keen and active speculation. Grand Joy, who is now at the top of his form, has gone out, but with both equally fit Mr. Bliss would have been preferred at the distance. Arcade will probably be winning a nice handicap very shortly, but he is a temperamental creature, and Sosie is to be preferred. The penalised Green Fire has disappointed us too often. Sir Greysteel and The Monk can fight their Redcar battle over again, and the latter may this time turn the tables. Tunis is not out of it by any means, and of the lower lot Bucks Yeoman and Palma Bay make the strongest appeal. The form shown by the four-year-old in the Chesterfield Cup at Goodwood impresses one upon close examination, but he is not too dependable. The Monk, Bucks Yeoman, and Palma Bay must run forward. The Great Northern Leger would be an attractive affair were the best of those remaining in to contest the issue. Bucellas having gone out, we have to choose between Roidore and Great Sand. The latter is a useful colt. Selections:—

Trial Plate—Surcoat.
Harewood Plate—Piastre gelding.
Wynward Plate—Mirawala.
Stockton Handicap—Bucks Yeoman.
Great Northern Leger—Roidore.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS.

That the Dunstall Park Meeting will feel the pressure of the clashing to-day with the more important fixture on Mandale Bottoms at Thornaby is inevitable, but with a large local sporting clientele the Staffordshire enclosure is practically assured of a satisfactory gate. The chief prize on the card is the Ruckley Handicap of £500, which may be the race for which Mark Marten has been waiting, as his other engagement this week is of less value, but less difficult, perhaps, to win. In to-day's race he receives 13lb. from Waygood, who would probably concede it if he could reproduce the form that won for him the Anniversary Cup at Sandown Park, which made him fully a 21lb. better animal than Brighter London. Flint Jack may wait for York. Dark Fox does not strongly appeal, but he should account for Voltoi if the Liberpool running of the two was relatively correct. The latter was useful over a distance of ground when in Ireland. Mark Marten's Catterick form may be overrated, but he there conceded Spigot Lodge 16lb. and ran away from him. Of the others only The Moy need be discussed, and he certainly appears a possible winner here on his Bibury Cup running behind Despote. Selections:—

Shrewsbury Handicap—Kojinup; if absent, Rising Falcon.
Himley Plate—Beauty gelding.
Bushbury Plate—Hearty.
Ruckley Handicap—Waygood.
Walsall Handicap — Gay Christian or Rocketer.
Dudley Plate—Plonk's Sister (in the absence of Perfect Son).

ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS.

The Company has been formed to carry out the objects set forth in the Memorandum of Association, and particularly for the following purposes:—

1. To spread its investments over the widest field in accordance with the expert knowledge at the Trust's disposal so as to combine, as far as possible, a profitable return with safety of capital.
2. To take advantage of set-backs which in the opinion of the Directors are likely to be merely temporary to invest in fundamentally sound concerns.
3. To acquire an interest in promising undertakings at their inception.
4. To underwrite New Issues.

The opportunities for a Company on such lines as above are recognised by all connected with the plantation industry.

Cultivation is increasingly tending to supersede the natural growth of wild products.

The chief aim of the Trust—as the name implies—is to interest itself in Rubber and Tropical Agriculture generally, and a few facts and figures relating thereto will not be out of place.

RUBBER.

The consumption of rubber has grown from 120,000 tons in 1914 to 475,000 tons in 1924, and for the first half year of 1925 exceeded 275,000 tons.

The world's potential production to-day is about 600,000 tons. As very little Rubber has been planted during the last five years any material increase in this figure would appear to be improbable during the next five years.

It would appear therefore that supply and demand are arriving at an equilibrium.

The tendency is for native owned estates to pass into European hands, thus frequently offering favourable opportunities for investment.

TEA.

A recent feature has been the increase in consumption in the U.S.A., while Russian demand, which was very small in the years following the Revolution, has shown a marked recovery this year.

Tea has proved over a long period of years to be the most consistently remunerative form of tropical cultivation.

OIL PALMS.

The cultivation of this product is rapidly increasing in the East, and as has been the case with rubber the tendency is for the cultivated palm to increase at the expense of the wild variety. The possibilities in this direction will receive close attention.

RESERVE FUND.—The Articles provide that all profits received from sales shall be placed to Capital Reserve. Income from investments and other revenue will be available for dividends.

Contracts, both dated Wednesday, 12th August, 1925, have been entered into between the Company and Messrs. Cazenove and Akroyds and Messrs. Laurence, Sons and Gardner, respectively, by which they undertake to guarantee the subscription of the whole of this Issue in consideration of an option to subscribe for 125,000 Shares at par, such right to be exercisable on 1st April in any year up to and including 1st April, 1930. Certificates will in due course be issued for these options. In the event of the Directors deciding to issue further Capital, the option holders will be entitled to any advantages which may be offered to Shareholders. Various sub-contracts have been entered into to which the Company is not a party.

Applications for Shares should be made on the form accompanying the Prospectus and sent to the Company's Bankers, together with a remittance for the amount of the deposit.

Copies of the full Prospectuses, upon the terms of which applications will alone be received, and Forms of Application for Shares can be obtained from the Bankers, Brokers and Solicitors, and at the Registered Offices of the Company.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND NOTES.

TONE AND COMMENT.

DUBLIN BUSIER.

PRICES GENERALLY LOWER.

There was rather more business current on 'Change yesterday, with quite a number of unimportant irregular price movements, and very few outstanding alterations calling for special reference. Government National Sterling and Compensation Stocks were dull and lower, with little stock changing hands. British Funds strengthened further, especially War Loan 5 p.c. Stock. The Bank market was quiet, without feature. Among Breweries, Guinness Ord. and Pref. were harder, but the former eventually closed rather on offer at the advance. Distillers (Scotch) Shares were advanced, but Irish Distillery Shares opened and closed on offer. Marconi Ord. were dull and idle. Selling orders were about in most cases for Great Southern Railway issues, but the Debs. exceptionally took a slight turn for the better. Great Northern Rails were offered down to about 35 unofficially, but the buying level was not stated. The previous price was 36 1/16 x.d. Dublin United Tramway issues were irregularly disposed. The Ord. recovered sharply for a limited transaction. Dunlop Rubber Ord., after opening higher, closed still at an advance, but under best, after a considerable amount of dealing had taken place. Profit-taking was current in Textiles. Courtaulds opened strong, but left off under best. Coats exceptionally rallied, but Cottons and Dyers were weak. Tobaccos were well held. Lever Bros. 7 p.c. Pref. improved to a small premium. Burke issues were quietly dull. Irish-American Oil Pref. were in request. Hibernian Fire were on offer, but "Chartered," though easier, were a firm market.

LONDON EASIER.

TONE IRREGULAR.

The volume of business transacted in the London stock markets yesterday showed no particular expansion, while an irregular tendency prevailed in most departments. Gilt-edged securities and Foreign Rails were exceptions to the general rule, and these two markets finished firm at higher figures. Business was on a slightly larger scale in the former market, and prices showed a tendency to improve. War Loan issues firmed up and were quoted higher at the close, while Conversion Loans also showed a firmer front. As regards Foreign Rails, the firm tone manifest during the past few days continued in evidence, and under the lead of Argentine issues, prices were pushed further ahead, the market closing with a firm appearance. An irregular tendency characterised the Rubber share market, the price for the commodity easing to 3s. 3d. to 3s. 3½d. per lb. A generally firm tone continued in evidence in Foreign Government stocks. A weak tone developed in Home Rails, and prices were marked down all round. In Industrials, Textiles were inclined to ease, but no decided movement is recorded. Dunlops were a firm spot.

BRITISH WIRELESS INDUSTRY.

In a report issued for the benefit of the American wireless manufacturing industry by the American Government trade experts, it is declared that the development of the wireless industry in Great Britain has reached such a high state of efficiency that American wireless apparatus manufacturers cannot hope to compete in the British market. Since the removal of the official restrictions on the use in Great Britain of non-British-made sets, the American manufacturers have displayed keen interest as to the possibility of entering the British market. They are, however, advised by the experts of the Department of Commerce that there is no opening for the sale of any appreciable quantity of goods of ordinary manufacture in Great Britain. Next to the United States and Canada, the report declares, Great Britain is the most highly developed wireless market in the world.

AMERICAN SHIPPING BOARD.

A Washington message states that a reduction has been made in the Shipping Board's appropriation from 22 to 15 millions, which may lead to the tying up of the Leviathan, according to the Chairman, Mr. O'Connor, who said the country's economic interests necessitated preference on freighters. Therefore, if reductions on operations must be had, the six United States liners which operated at a loss should be withdrawn, although such action might mean the loss of American prestige. Naturally, Mr. O'Connor's principal aim is to stir up public opinion against the Budget director's action.

FALCON MINES CLOSING DOWN.

A Buluwayo telegram states that the Falcon mines at Umvuma is closing down at the end of this month. The directors announce that they have "no alternative," as the hoped for improvement has not eventuated.

PROVINCIAL EXCHANGES.

BIRMINGHAM.—Active bidding for Motors. Humbers and Singers buoyant, Rovers active. S.T.D. Pref. rising, 10/3. Dunlops opened strongly but reacted. Austins, 6/1½; do. BENMORE DISTILLERIES.—A dividend of 7½ per cent., less tax, carrying forward £7,846. The unissued capital is offered to shareholders, pro rata, to their holdings.

CALICO PRINTERS ASSOCIATION.—After providing for maintenance, depreciation, Debenture interest, etc., the accounts for the year ending June 30 last show net profit of £532,597. To this is added £167,708, realised profit from the sale of French works, together with accumulated balances against loss on exchange realised by this transaction, which, with £218,614 brought forward, makes the total to credit of profit and loss of £918,919. Directors recommend £150,000 to reserve, £100,000 to employees' fund and Ordinary dividend of 10 per cent. for year, plus bonus of 5 per cent. out of surplus on French transaction, making 15 per cent. for the year; forward, £216,503. (Last year the final dividend was 10 per cent. The net profit was £540,786, with £155,700 to general reserve, £50,000 to employees' benefit fund, and £217,600 forward.)

EAST WORCESTERSHIRE WATERWORKS.—Dividend at rate of 8 per cent. per annum on Ord. Shares.

LONDON MOVEMENTS.

A firmer tone prevailed in the gilt-edged market yesterday, while the volume of business was on a slightly larger scale. War Loan Fives gained a further ⅛ to 101⅛, while the Fours, also at 101⅛, finished ⅛ higher. Consols repeated 56⅛, while Funding Loan and Victory Bonds were also both unaltered on the day's business. Conversion Loans firmed up, the 3½ p.c. closing ⅛ to the good at 78⅛. The New South African scrip was firmer at 1 1/16 prem. and the Australian at 1 1/16 prem.

Among Foreign Government Stocks Brazilian Stocks continued firm, the Funding Bonds gaining a point to 89, while others, although without material alteration, were inclined to harden. French Fives were quoted at 15½ ex div., while the Fours repeated 12½. German Sevens dropped back to ⅛ or ⅛ lower. Reconstruction Loans were firmer.

BRITISH RAILS WEAK.

Home Rails developed a weaker tone, and prices were marked lower where any alteration was registered. Great Westerns shed a point to 86½ x.d., while Midlands at 76½ x.d. were also a point below the week-end figure. North-Eastern 5 p.c. Pref.-Ord. lost ½ to 59 x.d., while the Def.-Ord. gave way sharply to 20, or 1¼ down. Metropolitan Cons. eased ½ to 67½ x.d. Southerns were generally maintained, but the Pref.-Ord. finished ½ lower at 75½ x.d.

FOREIGN RAILS STRONG.

A firm tone continued in Colonial and Foreign Rails. Argentine issues were again firmer, Buenos Ayres Great Southern, Pacific and Western all finishing ½ better. Central Argentines also gained ½, while Central Uruguay at 71 were a full point higher. "Canpacs" at 148 were a point up, while Grand Trunk 4 p.c. Guaranteed at 79 were also a point to the good. Cordoba Centrals were not much altered, but the 1st Pref. recorded an improvement of ½ to 60½. Entre Rios 6 p.c. Cum. Pref. closed a point better, while the Ord. gained ½ to 38. San Paulo Ord. continued on the up grade, and the final quotation was a further 2 points higher at 166. Uruguay Northern Debs. gained ½ to 22.

RUBBER SHARES DULL.

The price for spot rubber eased to 3s. 3d. per pound yesterday, but later recovered slightly to 3s. 3½d. The general tone of the Share market was dull, and price movements were irregular, but, with a harder tendency prevailing towards the close, a number of issues moved up, and at the close the majority of movements were in favour of holders. London stocks of the raw material have been reduced by 520 tons to 5,073 tons. Bah Lias and Batu Tiga, after an indifferent start, firmed up and closed 7½d. higher, while Glenshiel recorded an improvement of 1s. at the end of the day. Malacca were an exceptionally firm spot, and here an increase of 1s. 10½d. was registered, the final quotation being 63s. 1½d. Kasintoe put on 1s. 3¾d., and Membakut finished 1s. to the good. Sungei Buaya finished 1s. harder at 43s. Tandjong Malim spurted to 28s. 7½d., or 1s. 9d. higher, while Tandjong gained 7½d. to 53s. 9d. United Sua Betong were a firm market, the Ord. rising to 86s. and the New to 81s. 6d. Yam Seng at 3s. 9d. were 4d. above the week-end figures. B.N.B.R. Trusts, on the other hand, were down to 13s. 6d. x.d., while Java Amalgamated lost 10½d. to 33s. 4½d. Ledbury fell away to 45s., or 1s. 3d. lower. Kuala Lumpur were an exceptionally weak market, and here a decline of 2s. 10½d. was recorded to 68s. 4½d. Pegoh eased 1s. 3d. to 55s. 3d., and Manchester North Borneo and P.P.K. Ceylon lost 9d. and 3d. respectively to 33s. 9d. and 29s. Rubber Trust closed 3d. down, as did Sapong and Sialang.

OIL SHARES QUIET.

Little of importance transpired in the Oil Share market yesterday, business in all directions being of an extremely quiet character, with little influence upon quotations. Public interest remained negligible, and the attendance of members was small, not only in this section, but throughout the House. In the circumstances, it was at least satisfactory that a steady tone was maintained. A fairly satisfactory showing was made by the recognised leaders. Buying orders came to hand from Paris about mid-day for the shares usually favoured by that centre—Royal Dutch, Shells and Mexican Eagles—but the demand from that centre was soon satisfied, while in the afternoon Royal Dutch met with support from New York. The turnover in Shells was not large. The shares were finally 1/16 up. British Controlled were less active than of late, the market in the Common shares being held in check owing to the fact that there was a fairly large seller about of the Preferred. The Common were finally unchanged, and the Preferred also left off without alteration.

TEA SHARES LOWER.

Business remained on an extremely small scale in the Tea share market yesterday, while a distinctly easier tendency was noticeable. After a fairly steady opening, prices exhibited a tendency to dwindle, and with little interest being taken in this department lower levels were recorded at the end of the day. Price movements were numerous, and with a few small exceptions they were in the downward direction.

INDUSTRIALS STEADY.

Although a quiet day was experienced in the Miscellaneous and Industrial markets yesterday, there was a fair sprinkling of business in most departments, and, as was the case in the preceding week, a number of interesting features developed. Following the appearance of the initial report, Hinde and Hardy's suffered from realisations, and receded to 45s. Elsewhere, among silk shares Courtaulds came on offer and eased to 6 1/16, but Listers found renewed support which took them to 34s. 6d., a gain of 6d., and Wardle and Davenports rose 1/16 to 4½. American Cellulose continued in request, rising to 18. Other textiles were inclined to dulness. Bradford Dyers relapsed to 82s. 6d. or 6d. down, and Calicos dropped 1s. to 33s. Joshua Hoyles, however, hardened to 27s. 6d. Caterers ruled firm, J. Lyons meeting with fresh support and gaining 1/16 at 3 15/16, while Trust Houses became prominent, finishing 9d. to the good at 12s. 3d. Among refreshment issues, Schweppes Deferred were a firm spot at 37s., and Apollinaris rose 6d. to 7s. 6d. Breweries held their ground. Allsopp Preferred rose 1 to 92½, as did Watney Debentures to 66½. Barclay's Preferences advanced ⅛ to 5⅛, but Walker Cains further eased to 24s. Cable manufacturing shares attracted fresh support, with the result that still higher prices were recorded. Callenders provided the feature, closing 2s. 6d. better at 68s., while Henleys put on 2s. to 65s. 6d. Siemens continued in good demand and closed 1s. better at 29s. 6d. Brush rose to 21s. Wireless descriptions hardly varied. With renewed support for Insurances, prices further improved. In the Miscellaneous trading list Nobel issues were a firm market. The Ordinary strengthened to 24s. 3d., and the Deferred rose 6d. to 10s. 6d. Swedish Match A and B Shares received good support, the former closing 1/16 up at 11 1/16, while the latter rose ⅛ to 11⅞. Dunlops were active but failed to maintain an early improvement, closing without quotable alteration at 21s. The demand for Amalgamated Anthracites continued, with the result that the price further advanced 1s. to 21s., while Uniteds gained 6d. at 18s. 6d. Among textile machinery issues, Platt Bros. were wanted and left off 7½d. up at 28s. 10½d. Otherwise Iron and Coal Shares displayed little of interest. Nitrates kept up, and News Shares showed firmness, though there were few changes in prices. Tobaccos were irregular. B.A.T. and Imperials eased a little, but Carreras and Godfrey Phillips were better.

British and Irish Steam Pref. repeated 13s.

In Home Rails, Great Northern Ord. closed sellers, and Great Southern also, but in neither case did business result; but the Debs. of the latter rallied ½ to 52½ buyers, with sellers looking for 55 at the close, while the Pref. relapsed 1¼ to 26½ and the Guaranteed ¼ to 40½. Great Northern Debs. repeated 61¼.

In Trams, Dublin United issues were irregular. The Ord. rallied 1/16 to 6⅛, but the Pref. fell ⅛ to 8⅛.

Dunlop Rubber Ord. opened 9d. better at 21s. 7½d., but fell back later to 21s. 6d., 21s. 4½d., 21s. 3d., and the New Ord. realised 21s. 1½d.

In Drapery Shares, Switzer Debs. repeated 5¾ for an odd lot.

Among Manufacturing Shares, Courtaulds opened 6d. higher at 170s. buyers, but later fell back to 129s. 6d., 129s. 3d. Coats Ord. recovered 6d. further to 59s. 9d., but Bleachers fell 1½d. to 69s. 9d., Bradford Dyers 9d. to 83s. 3d., and Cottons 1s. 3d. to 54s., 53s. 6d. x.d. Goulding Ord., at 45s., were steady. LONDON MINING MARKET IRREGULAR.

BRIGHT SPOTS AND SMALL DECLINES.

There was a good tone in the London Mining market yesterday, and several bright spots were shown. The Cape, although not an aggressive buyer, was in request of its favourites, and these appreciated, while Paris was also a supporter of the international shares. Here and there, however, sellers predominated, and small declines were registered, giving the list of movements at the close a somewhat irregular appearance, but the gains were the more numerous and of greater extent. Central Mining were in demand, and appreciated, while Rand Mines and Gold Fields also closed at a higher level.

The buying of Union Corporation was again in progress, a further rise taking place. The Platinum group was uninteresting. Mozams weakened on renewed selling, but South West Africa improved. A bright feature in Rhodesians was a sharp rise in Chartered. Bwanas continued to be steadily absorbed, without making any mark on the quotation.

That the forward movement in Diamond shares had not yet reached its limit was shown by a further good rise in De Beers Def. Consol Diamonds were in demand, the Cape being buyers of these shares. Nor were the options neglected. Far-seeing investors were steadily picking up these options at 5s. 6d., the option being the right to call the Ord. shares at 20s. for the next four years.

Tin fell £2 to £257 7s. 6d. per ton, and changes in these shares were irregular. Barriers were again in demand, Broken Hill Props. scoring another good rise. Zinc issues were also in good request. West Australians were quiet. Rio Tintos went steadily ahead all the day, but other Coppers were unchanged. Elsewhere, the feature was a sharp rise in Burma Corporation, the demand coming from the provinces, and although they closed slightly below the best, a good improvement took place on balance. Closing prices:—

IRISH TRADE UNION CONGRESS HEALTH INSURANCE SOCIETY, NO. 120.

The second annual meeting of the Irish Trade Union Congress Approved Society was held on August 7th, Mr. M. Somerville, Chairman of the Committee of Management, presiding. Delegates attended from sixteen constituent groups, representing amalgamated unions whose approved societies were administered from English offices prior to the establishment of the Free State. The annual report indicated a greater strength in numbers and influence, due principally to the taking over of the Post Office Workers' Approved Society. The amount expended in sickness, disablement and maternity benefits in the year 1924 amounted to £12,190 and non-cash additional benefits to £264. The report and statement of accounts were adopted and the following were elected to the new Management Committee:—Messrs. M. Somerville (Woodworkers), J. H. Bennett (Sailors and Firemen), L. Keegan (Engineers), J. Sheppard (Slaters and Tilers), P. Gavan (Woodcutting Machinists), F. Parkes (Post Office Workers), George Milner (Vehicle Builders). The outgoing officers were re-elected as follows:—Messrs. T. Johnson (Secretary), T. Farren (Treasurer), P. J. Martin, H. McDermott, T. Dunne (Trustees). A resolution of protest against the unification proposals of the Government was moved by Mr. L. Keegan and supported by most of the delegates present. The resolution was unanimously adopted, and the Society's representatives on the Association of Trade Union Approved Societies were instructed to raise the matter at the next meeting.

THE MONEY MARKET.

LOANS IN AMPLE SUPPLY.

DISCOUNTS WEAK.

There was continued ease in Lombard street yesterday owing to last week's disbursements and the return of currency notes from circulation after the holidays. Treasury bill payments again exceed maturities, and calls on new issues amount to £1,600,000, but these factors were apparently without effect. During the early hours short loans were in fair demand at 3½ p.c., but later on supplies became plentiful, and balances were offered at 3 p.c. and under. Old day-to-day money was renewed at 3½ p.c., while weekly fixtures went on at 3½ p.c. The small amount due at the Bank yesterday was repaid with ease. The discount market was weak on the state of money, and fine three months' bills were quoted at 3⅞-3 15/16 p.c.; two months' drafts were 3⅞ p.c., four months' 3⅞-3 15/16 p.c., and six months' 4 1/16-4⅛ p.c. Last week's Treasuries were offered at 3 15/16 p.c., and the banks were buyers of September bills at 3⅞ p.c.

At the Bank of England yesterday £33,000 in bar gold was sold, and £45,000 in sovereigns was withdrawn for the Straits Settlements.

A feature of the foreign exchange was the weakness of French and Belgian francs. The Brussels quotation was finally more than a franc higher at 109, which was the worst rate touched during the day, while the Paris quotation finished 60 centimes higher at 106.65. Italian lire moved in sympathy to over 135. Dutch florins further improved to 12.06½, but there was some reaction in pesetas to 33.69½. Norwegian kroner were firm, but the currencies of Sweden, Poland, Finland and Greece were worse. Sterling in New York was a little dull at about 4.85½. No fresh advices were received from South American centres.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

St. Peter's Church, Balrothery, near Balbriggan, Co. Dublin, was well filled on Sunday, on the occasion of the dedication of a new frontal in green and gold for the Holy Table, at the back of which are dossel curtains in green attached to a wooden framework, on which Celtic designs and ecclesiastical ornaments are carved. A new sanctuary carpet and kneeling mats have also been presented. An oak altar rail was presented by the Parish of Christ Church, Kingstown. With this single exception, the gifts are the work of the parishioners, who, though they are few in number, have shown their zeal for the parish church by providing these gifts. The Rector, the Rev. H. B. Good, preached at the morning Service and dedicated the gifts. The preacher at the afternoon Service was the Rev. Gerald Elliott, Rector of St. James's, Edinburgh.

The date of the forthcoming exhibition in connection with the Colonial and Continental Church Society was stated by our Church of Ireland Correspondent in recent "Missionary Notes" as May 2-7. It should be November 2-7.

A memorial tablet to the memory of the late Archdeacon Hamilton has been erected in Desertmartin Church. Mr. Hamilton was rector of the parish during the years of Disestablishment.

The Archbishop of Dublin is representing the Church of Ireland at the World Conference on Life and Work, which will be held at Stockholm from August 18 to 31.

The Parish Church of St. Paul's, Portarlington, has been repaired and redecorated. The funds for the work have been supplied mainly by the parishioners.

The Curacies of the Parish of St. Peter and St. Andrew, and Trinity Church, Limerick, are vacant.

SHIRTS and COLLARS

Shirts to fit the man. Collars to fit the shirts.

These are indispensable, yet how rarely so regarded.

An expensive, well made suit and a badly fitting shirt and collar, are often companions. The Coat Shape Shirt for day and evening wear fits neater than the old Tunic Shirt and the quarter size in collars ensure perfect comfort.

"THE HOUSE FOR MEN" sells both in a pleasing range of coloured designs; also white, cream, buff, ivory, blue and grey—moderately priced. Evening Shirts pleated and plain starched.

Buy your Shirts and Collars from "THE HOUSE FOR MEN." Fit is guaranteed, wear is guaranteed.
